President Making Inspection Of U.S. Space Installations

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. (AP)—President Kennedy stopped here today to inspect America's big space booster rockets. The chief executive is on a two day look at operations designed at overtaking the Soviet Union in space.

Kennedy's four-state tour is billed by the White House as a non-political business trip. The White House says it will enable him to examine work on space programs and provide background for consideration of next years space budget.

Church School Expects Public Bus Service

COVINGTON, Ky. (AP) — The school superintendent of the Catholic Diocese of Covington says he feels confident Boone County officials will provide transportation for parochial school students, thus ending the protest marches to St. Paul School at Florence.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. John Elsaesser, the superintendent, said in a statement: "I feel confident that our elected officials of Boone County, who have the responsibility and the welfare of the county residents at heart, will be able to offer school bus transportation services to all pupils as is being done in Kenton, Campbell and many other counties in the state of Kentucky."

The Boone County Fiscal Court refused to allocate funds for free transportation of parochial school pupils this term. When the county announced it would charge the schools $17.23 per child for buses, St. Paul School refused to go along and the protest marches began. The other two schools agreed to pay the bus fee.

Msgr. Elsaesser said the 840 parochial students in Boone County mean a savings of $230,000 a year to taxpayers.

Death Helps Soblen Escape U.S. Penalty

Convicted Soviet Spy Dies in London Clinic After Lengthy Coma

LONDON (AP) — Fugitive spy Robert A. Soblen died in a London hospital today and escaped the life sentence that awaited him in a U.S. federal prison for wartime espionage for the Soviet Union.

Soblen, died in Hillingdon Hospital, where he had lain unconscious since last Thursday. He had taken an overdose of barbiturates just before he was removed from Brixton Prison for deportation to the United States.

Dr. Cyril Barnes, who was in charge of Soblen's treatment, told newsmen Soblen's death was due not to the drugs he had taken but rather to "exhaustion following convulsions and damage to the brain, presumably caused by hemorrhage."

Barnes explained that Soblen had taken a quick-acting barbiturate and "it had been eliminated from the body chemically 24 hours before death."

Barnes said Soblen's wife, Dr. Dina Soblen, a psychiatrist like her husband, was at his bedside when he died. She flew to London and had been at the hospital with him since Friday.

"Just before 10 a.m. there was a severe turn for the worse," Barnes said. "Death did not occur suddenly, but came as his strength gradually failed."

Later, Soblen's wife was admitted to the hospital as a patient. A spokesman said she was being treated for shock.

The death of the 61-year-old New York psychiatrist ended a 10 week battle to escape deportation to the United States, where he faced a life sentence as a wartime spy for the Soviet Union.

Soblen took an overdose of barbiturates apparently just before he was put in an ambulance last Thursday to be taken to a plane for the United States.

En route to London Airport he lapsed into unconsciousness in the ambulance. At the airport he was transferred to another ambulance and rushed to nearby Hillingdon Hospital.

He never regained consciousness, and on Saturday he developed a coma.

Corporate Profit, Income Records Set

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges announced today records for corporate profits and personal income. He described them as "not entirely satisfactory but still good."

Hodges told a news conference that before-tax profits of corporations reached a peak annual rate of $50.9 billion in the April-June quarter. The January-March rate was $50.1 billion and some observers had been dubious that the second quarter would be able to show much of a gain because of sluggishness in the economy.

The Commerce chief also reported that personal income—the income of individual Americans—rose by $1 billion in August to a record annual rate of $443 billion.

Hodges, while expressing the view that he would have preferred even stronger showings in profits and income, said he foresees good business at least through Christmas.

"I'm inclined to think business has picked up a bit, he commented. "July and August are encouraging. Over the short-term, I think business is going to remain good."

Young German Swims 300 Yards to Freedom

BERLIN (AP) — A 21-year-old man swam 300 yards to the safety of West Berlin today, despite gun fire from East German police.

The dramatic escape—the fifth of the day—occurred at 8:30 a.m. near the old Reichstag building. Jumping from the Marshall Bridge, the young man swam along the east bank of the Spree River, apparently escaping detection until he was ready to swim across. Four shots were fired at him, West Berlin police said, but all missed.

Havana Reports Two Freighters Hit By Pirate Ship Gunfire near Cuba

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP)—Havana radio said today a Cuban freighter and a British cargo ship have been attacked by what the broadcast labeled a pirate ship.

No mention was made of casualties or the extent of damage.

The broadcast, monitored in Key West, said the ships were fired on off the northern coast of Cuba, but did not specify the time.

The Cuban vessel, identified as the San Pascual, was hit 18 times and eight shots whistled through the crew's cabin, the radio said.

The British ship, the name of which sounded like "New Land," took 13 hits, the Havana account said.

The British vessel may have been the Trafalgar Steamship Co. sugar cargo freighter Newlane. In London, Trafalgar said the Newlane left Havana Monday night under charter. The company said it did not know the 7,043-ton ship's destination because the charter had been arranged by its agents for the Caribbean area.

Havana radio said the Cuban vessel was carrying a load of molasses, the British freighter a load of sugar for Socialist countries.

Calling the alleged incident "a cowardly attack against the Cuban government," the broadcast said a second British ship—with a name which sounded like "Apple Sultan"—escaped the attack because it was delayed in reaching the area.

The radio did not elaborate on its designation of the alleged attacker as a pirate ship.

The report came in the wake of an offshore shelling of Havana Aug. 24 by anti-Castro Cubans.

The youth who led the Aug. 24 attack said last week that ships with Communist flags would be considered military targets. Juan Manuel Salvat, the attack leader, made that statement to newsmen in Caracas, Venezuela.

The spotlight has been focused recently on shipping to and from Cuba by an increase in military shipments from the Soviet bloc to Fidel Castro's regime and reports that much of this is being carried in ships chartered from NATO allies of the United States.

Sen. Everett Dirksen, R-Ill., said last week 61 vessels of four NATO countries are delivering Communist supplies to Cuba. He said congressional leaders were in formed at a White House briefing that most of the military material comes in British, German, Norwegian and Greek ships.

Manned Orbit Due Sept. 28

Schirra Is Tagged For 6 Earth Rounds

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — Astronaut Walter M. Schirra Jr.'s intended six-orbit flight around the globe has been delayed three days until Sept. 28 to permit further time for preparation.

The decision came Monday after Project Mercury officials evaluated the readiness of all aspects. It was reported unofficially that the primary Pacific tracking ship, the Rose Knot, was not ready.

The Atlas booster rocket and Schirra's spacecraft were reported in excellent condition. They were joined together on pad No. 14 Monday and extensive compatibility checks were begun.

Schirra continued training here for the flight, which is to keep him aloft for nine hours, twice the flight time of astronauts John H. Glenn Jr. and Malcolm Scott Carpenter.

In Washington, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration announced that a press headquarters for the Schirra flight will be set up at the Cape Colony Inn at Cocoa Beach, Fla.

This may create a controversy because the Cape Colony is the million-dollar hotel in which the seven astronauts invested part of the reported $500,000 Life magazine paid them for rights to their personal stories.

In May, a NASA spokesman said it was unlikely that any motel in which persons connected with NASA had a large interest would be used as a Project Mercury press center. Operators of other motels in the area have said this would amount to government competition.

The motel designated as press center is assured of selling out its accommodations.

44 Are Killed As Jet Tanker Hits Mountain

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP)—All 44 persons aboard a Strategic Air Command jet tanker plane apparently were killed when the KC135 plowed into a fog-shrouded ravine on 5,271-foot Mt. Kit Carson about 20 miles northeast of here Monday.

Thirty-three bodies had been recovered when nightfall halted the search of the 500-yard deep ravine.

"It's the worst sight I've ever seen," said a highway patrolman. Aboard the plane were 39 Air Force men, all members of the 28th Bomb Wing at Ellsworth Air Force Base, S.D.; one civilian and four crewmen.

The tanker, based at Ellsworth, was carrying the airmen to Fairchild Air Force Base near here, where they were to stay while Ellsworth runways were repaired. The jet was only 10 minutes from its destination when it crashed.

Col. Floyd R. Cressman of Fairchild, one of the first to view the wreckage, said the pilot apparently tried to pull up the tanker at the last minute. Visibility was near zero at the time.

Nationalists, U.S. Indicate U2 Spying on China Continues

TOKYO (AP) — Red China scolded the United States loudly again today about the flight of the Chinese Nationalist U2 plane downed over the China mainland.

But neither the Nationalists nor the U.S. government gave any indication they would halt Nationalist spy flights over Communist China.

Communist Chinese newspapers called the flight an intrusion and aggression. The downing of the craft over East China Sunday, they said, "should serve as a good lesson to the American aggressors."

In Washington, the State Department and the Chinese Nationalist Embassy declined comment. U2 flights over the Soviet Union were halted after pilot Francis Gary Powers was shot down in 1960, but there was no indication the high-altitude reconnaissance flights over Red China would be discontinued.

It was learned in Washington that the State Department knew to what use Nationalist China would put the U2s it bought in the United States, and that intelligence information gathered by Nationalist pilots was supplied the United States.

Nationalist China still considers the mainland its territory and brushes aside accusations that its flights are intrusions. Other types of Nationalist planes drop leaflets and food on the mainland.

The United States conceded Sept. 4 that a U.S. U2 may have strayed over the southern tip of Soviet-held Sakhalin and that it was considering precautions to prevent a recurrence. Nothing ever was said to indicate that the United States was halting reconnaissance flights outside Soviet territory.

Peiping radio said an air force unit was decorated for shooting down the U2. It still gave no details on how the plane, which flies at 60,000 to 90,000 feet during reconnaissance, was downed. There was speculation the weapon may have been a Soviet-made ground-to-air missile.

U.S. To Resume Nuclear Tests

More Atmospheric Shots Said Needed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has cleared the way for the resumption of atmospheric nuclear test explosions over the Pacific.

A spokesman for the Atomic Energy Commission said Monday night the tests probably will resume later this month or early in October. He indicated, however, that there probably would be no detonation until after Sept. 28, the date set for the six-orbit flight of astronaut Walter M. Schirra Jr.

A joint announcement by the AEC and the Defense Department said the off-limits safety zone around and above Johnston Island in the Pacific would be reactivated Sept. 22 "in connection with the completion of the Pacific test series."

Test shots from the island were discontinued July 31 after a Thor missile bearing a nuclear warhead for high-altitude detonation was destroyed on the launch pad July 25. The AEC spokesman said the badly damaged launch area would be repaired by late this month.

The statement did not say how many tests will be conducted but said they "will include a few high-altitude events and a few in which the devices will be dropped from an airplane."

President Kennedy said at his news conference after the July 25 failure that there might be three more tests over the Pacific.

The Soviet Union broke a three-year moratorium on atmospheric nuclear tests in September 1961. The United States resumed atmospheric tests last April 25. The Soviet Union began a second round of testing on Aug. 5, although the AEC has indicated there may have been Soviet atmospheric tests before that date. The AEC has announced 10 Russian shots in the latest series.

Soviet's Cuba Blast Is Seen As Morale-Booster to Castro

WASHINGTON (AP)—The latest Soviet nuclear war warning today reads more like a statement to bolster the morale of the Fidel Castro government in Cuba than to intimidate the United States.

Whatever view Moscow and Washington may take, Castro and his followers may be seriously worried about the possibility of some new, strongly supported invasion attempt now that they are openly taking Soviet military assistance.

The White House and the State Department withheld immediate comment on the Soviet blast.

But in the circumstances, some such statement as that which the Moscow government issued today might well have been asked by Havana because of recent anti-Castro developments in Washington.

This is not the first time that such a device has been used by the Soviet Union. In the closing months of the Dwight D. Eisenhower administration Premier Khrushchev personally threatened on more than one occasion to use Soviet rockets against the United States if this country committed aggression against Cuba.

What may be significant about it now, however, is that it seems to mark a further decline in the American-Soviet relationship already heavily strained by such events as the unsuccessful efforts to find a settlement for the Soviet Western dispute over Berlin.

One hint that Khrushchev intends to keep the new round of angry argument within bounds, however, came in reference to Berlin.

The statement, referring to the forthcoming U.S. congressional elections, said the Soviet government is willing to take the U.S. political situation into account in considering its own Berlin policies.

The statement noted that there had been a pause recently in U.S.-Soviet exploratory talks on Berlin—which was a softly worded way to describe an almost total breakdown in the exchanges.

Death Helps Soblen Escape U.S. Penalty

Convicted Soviet Spy Dies in London Clinic After Lengthy Coma

LONDON (AP)—Fugitive spy Robert A. Soblen died in a London hospital today and escaped the life sentence that awaited him in a U.S. federal prison for wartime espionage for the Soviet Union.

Soblen, died in Hillingdon Hospital, where he had lain unconscious since last Thursday. He had taken an overdose of barbiturates just before he was removed from Brixton Prison for deportation to the United States.

Dr. Cyril Barnes, who was in charge of Soblen's treatment, told newsmen Soblen's death was due not to the drugs he had taken but rather to "exhaustion following convulsions and damage to the brain, presumably caused by hemorrhage."

Barnes explained that Soblen had taken a quick-acting barbiturate and "it had been eliminated from the body chemically 24 hours before death."

Later, Soblen's wife was admitted to the hospital as a patient. A spokesman said she was being treated for shock.

The death of the 61-year-old New York psychiatrist ended a 10-week battle to escape deportation to the United States, where he faced a life sentence as a wartime spy for the Soviet Union.

Soblen took an overdose of barbiturates apparently just before he was put in an ambulance last Thursday to be taken to a plane for the United States.

En route to London Airport he lapsed into unconsciousness in the ambulance. At the airport he was transferred to another ambulance and rushed to nearby Hillingdon Hospital.

He never regained consciousness, and on Saturday he died.

Corporate Profit, Income Records Set

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges announced today records for corporate profits and personal income. He described them as "not entirely satisfactory but still good."

Hodges told a news conference that before-tax profits of corporations reached a peak annual rate of $50.9 billion in the April-June quarter. The January-March rate was $50.1 billion and some observers had been dubious that the second quarter would be able to show much of a gain because of sluggishness in the economy.

The Commerce chief also reported that personal income—the income of individual Americans—rose by $1 billion in August to a record annual rate of $443 billion.

Hodges, while expressing the view that he would have preferred even stronger showings in profits and income, said he foresees good business at least through Christmas.

"I'm inclined to think business has picked up a bit, he commented. "July and August are encouraging. Over the short-term, I think business is going to remain good."

The dramatic escape—the fifth of the day—occurred at 8:30 a.m. near the old Reichstag building.

Jumping from the Marshall Bridge, the young man swam along the east bank of the Spree River, apparently escaping detection until he was ready to swim across. Four shots were fired at him, West Berlin police said, but all missed.

Havana Reports Two Freighters Hit By Pirate Ship Gunfire near Cuba

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP)—Havana radio said today a Cuban freighter and a British cargo ship have been attacked by what the broadcast labeled a pirate ship.

No mention was made of casualties or the extent of damage.

The broadcast, monitored in Key West, said the ships were fired on off the northern coast of Cuba, but did not specify the time.

The Cuban vessel, identified as the San Pascual, was hit 18 times and eight shots whistled through the crew's cabin, the radio said. The British ship, the name of which sounded like "New Land," took 13 hits, the Havana account said.

The British vessel may have been the Trafalgar Steamship Co. sugar cargo freighter Newlane. In London, Trafalgar said the Newlane left Havana Monday night under charter. The company said it did not know the 7,043-ton ship's destination because the charter had been arranged by its agents for the Caribbean area.

Havana radio said the Cuban vessel was carrying a load of molasses, the British freighter a load of sugar for Socialist countries.

Calling the alleged incident "a cowardly attack against the Cuban government," the broadcast said a second British ship—with a name which sounded like "Apple Sultan"—escaped the attack because it was delayed in reaching the area.

The radio did not elaborate on its designation of the alleged attacker as a pirate ship.

The report came in the wake of an offshore shelling of Havana Aug. 24 by anti-Castro Cubans.

The youth who led the Aug. 24 attack said last week that ships with Communist flags would be considered military targets. Juan Manuel Salvat, the attack leader, made that statement to newsmen in Caracas, Venezuela.

The spotlight has been focused recently on shipping to and from Cuba by an increase in military shipments from the Soviet bloc to Fidel Castro's regime and reports that much of this is being carried in ships chartered from NATO allies of the United States.

Sen. Everett Dirksen, R-Ill., said last week 61 vessels of four NATO countries are delivering Communist supplies to Cuba. He said congressional leaders were in formed at a White House briefing that most of the military material comes in British, German, Norwegian and Greek ships.

The British Foreign Office said Monday, however, that no arms shipments had left British ports for Cuba, and that as far as it knew British ships have not carried arms to Cuba from ports outside Britain.

Meanwhile, Castro today called members of the U.S. Congress bandits and pirates and said they have turned Cuba into an election eve political football.

"Their irresponsibility has converted the problem of Cuba into an instrument of internal politics of the United States," he declared in an early morning television address.

He quoted congressmen as referring to Cuba as a peril 90 miles from the shores of the United States. He asked if his nation has not the same right to brand the United States a peril at an equal distance.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk said today this country is not frightened by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's warning against any American attack on Cuba.

"We are a great country, Rusk told reporters. "We are not nervous or afraid. We'll proceed as we find it necessary."

His observations came on the heels of congressional reaction ranging from descriptions of the Soviet statement as sheer propaganda to demands for sterner U.S. action to prevent the establishment of a Communist military beachhead in Cuba.

Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, the Senate Democratic leader, led off for those who saw sheer propaganda in the Kremlin declaration, saying the Soviets "know full well they have erected a straw man for the purpose of knocking it down."

Sen. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, stated the case for the other approach. He promised support for "whatever firmer action President Kennedy decides to take with respect to Cuba."

"We cannot continue to be pushed and pushed offensively by Khrushchev and Castro while we are retreating and retreating," he said of Khrushchev and Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

"They are trying to create a situation they can use for its propaganda value," Mansfield told a reporter.

"As always, we will determine for ourselves what our foreign policy will be. We do not need or want any gratuitous advice or counsel from the Soviet Union."

Lausche, a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, told newsmen:

"Common sense precludes the assumption that while in Cuba there are missiles of 25-mile range there are not at the same time missiles of an intermediate range. The Monroe Doctrine has been violated. There is a definite threat to our national security 90 miles from our shores."

In a statement read to a special Foreign Office news conference, the Soviet government accused the United States of staging provocations "which might plunge the world into the disaster of a universal world war with the use of thermonuclear weapons."

"One cannot now attack Cuba and expect that the aggressor will be free from punishment for this attack," the statement continued. "If such an attack is made, this will be the beginning of unleashing war."

The statement appealed to the United States "to display common sense, not to lose its self-control and soberly to assess what its actions might lead to if it unleashes war."

It said the Soviets would not follow the path of the United States in calling up 150,000 reservists.

But the Soviet government, it continued, "considers it to be its duty to remain watchful in this Ministry as well as the command situation and order the Defense of the Soviet army to take all measures to put out fighting forces into the highest degree of fighting readiness."

"This is exclusively a precautionary measure. On our side we shall do everything not to violate peace."

The statement heralded an appeal to all nations to raise their voices against the alleged aggressive plans of the United States and to prevent the "American aggressors" from starting a war.

The statement declared that the Soviet Union is sending military supplies and military technicians to Cuba but is not establishing a base there.

"We state and we repeat," the statement said, "that if war is unleashed, if an aggressor attacks one or another state, and this state turns to us for help, then the Soviet Union has the possibility of giving aid from its own territory, to any peace loving state, and not only to Cuba."

"And let no one doubt that the Soviet Union will give such aid."

In the statement, the Soviet government also declared it wants a settlement of the Berlin question and a liquidation of the occupation regime in the divided city.

"The occupation regime must be liquidated, and it shall be liquidated," the statement said. The Soviets hinted they are willing to discuss the Berlin question.

Khrush Grows Warning about Cuba Invasion

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk said today this country is not frightened by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's warning against any American attack on Cuba.

"We are a great country, Rusk told reporters. "We are not nervous or afraid. We'll proceed as we find it necessary."

His observations came on the heels of congressional reaction ranging from descriptions of the Soviet statement as sheer propaganda to demands for sterner U.S. action to prevent the establishment of a Communist military beachhead in Cuba.

Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, the Senate Democratic leader, led off for those who saw sheer propaganda in the Kremlin declaration, saying the Soviets "know full well they have erected a straw man for the purpose of knocking it down."

Sen. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, stated the case for the other approach. He promised support for "whatever firmer action President Kennedy decides to take with respect to Cuba."

"We cannot continue to be pushed and pushed offensively by Khrushchev and Castro while we are retreating and retreating," he said of Khrushchev and Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

"They are trying to create a situation they can use for its propaganda value," Mansfield told a reporter.

"As always, we will determine for ourselves what our foreign policy will be. We do not need or want any gratuitous advice or counsel from the Soviet Union."

Lausche, a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, told newsmen:

"Common sense precludes the assumption that while in Cuba there are missiles of 25-mile range there are not at the same time missiles of an intermediate range. The Monroe Doctrine has been violated. There is a definite threat to our national security 90 miles from our shores."

In a statement read to a special Foreign Office news conference, the Soviet government accused the United States of staging provocations "which might plunge the world into the disaster of a universal world war with the use of thermonuclear weapons."

"One cannot now attack Cuba and expect that the aggressor will be free from punishment for this attack," the statement continued. "If such an attack is made, this will be the beginning of unleashing war."

The statement appealed to the United States "to display common sense, not to lose its self-control and soberly to assess what its actions might lead to if it unleashes war."

It said the Soviets would not follow the path of the United States in calling up 150,000 reservists.

But the Soviet government, it continued, "considers it to be its duty to remain watchful in this Ministry as well as the command situation and order the Defense of the Soviet army to take all measures to put out fighting forces into the highest degree of fighting readiness."

"This is exclusively a precautionary measure. On our side we shall do everything not to violate peace."

The statement heralded an appeal to all nations to raise their voices against the alleged aggressive plans of the United States and to prevent the "American aggressors" from starting a war.

The statement declared that the Soviet Union is sending military supplies and military technicians to Cuba but is not establishing a base there.

"We state and we repeat," the statement said, "that if war is unleashed, if an aggressor attacks one or another state, and this state turns to us for help, then the Soviet Union has the possibility of giving aid from its own territory, to any peace loving state, and not only to Cuba."

"And let no one doubt that the Soviet Union will give such aid."

In the statement, the Soviet government also declared it wants a settlement of the Berlin question and a liquidation of the occupation regime in the divided city.

"The occupation regime must be liquidated, and it shall be liquidated," the statement said. The Soviets hinted they are willing to discuss the Berlin question.

Once Around Roundtown

ROUNDTOWN'S favorite son, Ted Lewis, today informed his close friend, Ben Gordon, that a total of $1,750 was grossed from his long-play record albums sold during his week's performance at the Maramor.

Berger Hospital is to get $1,500 and $250 will go towards improvements at Ted Lewis Park.

The show opened in Columbus on a Friday and the supply of phonograph records was exhausted after Wednesday's show, Lewis reported.

CONCENTRATION was a difficult thing to accomplish on the second floor of the courthouse today.

A local plumber and his crew were busy working in a washroom off the jury quarters that has been in need of repair for several months.

Some of the plumbing imbedded in the floor had to be removed, causing considerable noise in the area.

Ohio State Gets Grant To Study Liver Disease

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio State University has received a grant of $12,248 to help finance a study aimed at earlier detection of liver disease.

The grant from the U.S. Public Health Service will support a project being supervised by Dr. Bertram D. Dinman, associate professor of preventive medicine.

U.S., Japan OK Pact

TOKYO (AP)—The United States and Japan exchanged documents today bringing into effect Japan's agreement to pay $490 million for postwar U.S. aid. The first payment of $21,959,125 dollars will be made next March.

New York Senator Told His Fears 'Groundless'

WASHINGTON (AP)—A high administration spokesman has assured Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N.Y., that his fears of a possible U.S.-Soviet diplomatic deal involving Cuba and Berlin are groundless.

Official sources said Secretary of State Dean Rusk personally advised Keating that no such deal was under consideration.

Soviet's Cuba Blast Is Seen As Morale-Booster to Castro

WASHINGTON (AP)—The latest Soviet nuclear war warning today reads more like a statement to bolster the morale of the Fidel Castro government in Cuba than to intimidate the United States.

Whatever view Moscow and Washington may take, Castro and his followers may be seriously worried about the possibility of some new, strongly supported invasion attempt now that they are openly taking Soviet military assistance.

The White House and the State Department withheld immediate comment on the Soviet blast.

But in the circumstances, some such statement as that which the Moscow government issued today would be welcomed in Havana. It might very well have been asked by Havana because of recent anti-Castro developments in Washington.

This is not the first time that such a device has been used by the Soviet Union. In the closing months of the Dwight D. Eisenhower administration Premier Khrushchev personally threatened on more than one occasion to use Soviet rockets against the United States if this country committed aggression against Cuba.

What may be significant about it now, however, is that it seems to mark a further decline in the American-Soviet relationship already heavily strained by such events as the unsuccessful efforts to find a settlement for the Soviet Western dispute over Berlin.

One hint that Khrushchev intends to keep the new round of angry argument within bounds, however, came in reference to Berlin.

The statement, referring to the forthcoming U.S. congressional elections, said the Soviet government is willing to take the U.S. political situation into account in considering its own Berlin policies.

The statement noted that there had been a pause recently in U.S.-Soviet exploratory talks on Berlin—which was a softly worded way to describe an almost total breakdown in the exchanges.

President Making Inspection Of U.S. Space Installations

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. (AP)—President Kennedy stopped here today to inspect America's big space booster rockets. The chief executive is on a two day look at operations designed at overtaking the Soviet Union in space.

Kennedy's four-state tour is billed by the White House as a non-political business trip. The White House says it will enable him to examine work on space programs and provide background for consideration of next years space budget.

Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, Space Administrator James E. Webb and Congress members directly concerned with space programs are accompanying Kennedy.

The Presidents interest in U.S. booster capabilities was underscored by the first stop on his schedule — Huntsville, Ala. He planned to visit Cape Canaveral, Fla., later in the day.

At Huntsville, where the Army and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration operate space development projects, Kennedy will view Saturns and Titan rockets.

Saturn is currently the U.S. hope for shooting a man to the moon before 1970. Titan is the booster for the planned Gemini project to loft two men into space and orbit them for as long as two weeks at a time.

At Huntsville, Kennedy's party will be briefed by Dr. Werner von Braun, director of the NASA space flight center. From a vantage point some 2,500 feet away, they will observe from a concrete blockhouse a ground test of a Saturns engines.

At the Cape, Kennedy may chat with astronaut Walter M. Schirra Jr., who is scheduled to be launched Sept. 28 on a six-orbit flight.

Kennedy goes to Houston, Tex., tonight and will deliver a speech, probably on his administrations space aspirations, at Rice University Wednesday morning. Later he will tour the new manned space flight center at Houston and visit the McDonnell Aircraft plant at St. Louis, Mo., before returning to Washington Wednesday night. He will address several thousand workers at the McDonnell plant, which produces capsules for U.S. astronauts.

Violence against Trucks Tied To Farmers' Holding Action

CORNING, Iowa (AP) — There were new reports of violence against trucks today as National Farmers Organization President Oren Lee Staley called upon members to tighten their livestock holding action.

In an address to about 1,200 persons attending an NFO-sponsored dinner Monday in Mason City, Staley said the holding action has been more effective than expected.

"The time has come when we must tighten down our holding action because we are very close to victory," Staley told the group.

He said hog receipts continue to lag far behind normal in the holding action aimed at forcing processors to sign contracts guaranteeing farmers higher prices for their livestock. Staley conceded cattle receipts were somewhat higher Monday but contended nearly half the receipts were stockers and feeders.

Gov. Elmer L. Andersen said he received a report of tires being shot off a livestock truck near Slayton, Minn., early today. Sheriff William H. Neumann furnished a copy to accompany the truck to the Iowa line with its cargo of cattle destined for the Sioux City stockyards.

3 Area Men Enter World Tractor Pull

Three members of the Central Ohio Tractor Pulling Club will be competing at the World Tractor Pull at Gibson City, Ill. Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Local farmers making the trip are Wheeler Rittinger, Route 3, Dane Patrick of Kingston and Larry Martin of Williamsport.

Rittinger and Martin will enter tractors in the 5,000-pound class and Patrick will enter the 10,000-pound event. The tractors are being transported to the contest by a Mt. Gilead trucking firm.

Several members of the club plan to make the trip with the local contestants.

The world pull is sponsored by the A and W Gear Co. of Anchor, Ill.

Andersen termed the violence likely the work of irresponsible individuals seeking either to help or discredit the NFO.

Four drivers of farm trucks reported they were fired at near Bowling Green, Mo., Monday night as they hauled livestock to the St. Louis market.

Sheriff Lester Plackmeyer said there were marks of shotgun pellets on the fenders and doors of the trucks, and one truck had a flat tire.

Violence against Trucks Tied To Farmers' Holding Action

CORNING, Iowa (AP) — There were new reports of violence against trucks today as National Farmers Organization President Oren Lee Staley called upon members to tighten their livestock holding action.

In an address to about 1,200 persons attending an NFO-sponsored dinner Monday in Mason City, Staley said the holding action has been more effective than expected.

"The time has come when we must tighten down our holding action because we are very close to victory," Staley told the group.

He said hog receipts continue to lag far behind normal in the holding action aimed at forcing processors to sign contracts guaranteeing farmers higher prices for their livestock. Staley conceded cattle receipts were somewhat higher Monday but contended nearly half the receipts were stockers and feeders.

Gov. Elmer L. Andersen said he received a report of tires being shot off a livestock truck near Slayton, Minn., early today. Sheriff William H. Neumann furnished a copy of a report of the truck to the Iowa line with its cargo of cattle destined for the Sioux City stockyards.

Space Issues Show Growth

NEW YORK (AP)—Aerospace, aircraft and electronic issues were improving in a mixed stock market early this afternoon.

Activity picked up a little from the quiet opening and was running ahead of Mondays pace when the total was the lowest of the month.

The list opened mixed and showed little movement until about the time Secretary of Commerce Luther Hodges reported new records for corporate profits and personal income. Then more plus signs began to appear among key stocks.

Hodges reported before-tax profits of corporations reached a peak annual rate of $50.9 billion in the June quarter and that individual income was up $1 billion in August from July, on a seasonally adjusted basis.

Senate Panel Back at Work On Trade Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Finance Committee goes back to work on President Kennedy's trade expansion bill today with hopes for adjournment apparently hinging on how fast it can get the job done.

Chairman Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., told newsmen he would do his best to get the bill out of committee by Friday. He said he hopes to hold morning and afternoon sessions.

Senate supporters of the administration trade bill were hopeful they would be able to give Kennedy the broad new tariff-cutting powers and other authority he asked, as the House did earlier this year.

However, they anticipate heavy pressure for inclusion of restrictive amendments in the bill.

The Finance Committee began voting on the trade bill on Aug. 23 but laid it aside so that members could take part in the two-week floor debate on Kennedy's tax revision measure.

If the trade bill can be brought up for floor action next week, leaders in both branches said they would drive to wind up the 1962 session by Sept. 29.

The Senate passed by a 45-22 vote Monday another of the must items on President Kennedy's legislative list and sent it to him to sign into law. The bill authorizes the President to spend $900 million on short-range public works projects to combat unemployment.

Union Shop Hinted OK'd in Labor Dispute

WASHINGTON (AP)—A presidential board was reported today to have recommended the union shop in a suggested formula for settling the aerospace labor dispute.

The three-man board report was understood to be in transit to President Kennedy on his tour of space and missile installations at Huntsville, Ala., and Cape Canaveral, Fla. It is expected to be released by the President later today.

The panel, headed by Prof. George W. Taylor of the University of Pennsylvania, was reported to propose that the four aerospace firms involved in the dispute adopt the union shop, as demanded by the auto workers and machinists unions which represent more than 100,000 employees.

The union shop, which would be subject to a two-thirds ratifying vote by the affected workers with the balloting to take place within 60 days, would mean the workers would be required to become union members as a condition to holding their jobs.

New Truck Authorized by Commission

The Pickaway County Engineer has been authorized to go ahead with a trade-in purchase of a new one-half ton pickup truck.

Permission was granted yesterday during a regular session of the Pickaway County Board of Commissioners. The engineer will trade a 1958 model for the new vehicle.

The truck will be purchased from Yates Buick, S. Court St. The purchase price, after trade, was set at $1,650.

In other business, the Commission initiated procedures for resurfacing of the road leading to the new Pittsburgh Plate Glass plant south of Circleville. The road extends eastward from Route 23 to the PPG site. . . .

PITTSBURGH already has poured concrete from its plant area to the location where the road will begin. Next steps for the county will include proper grading, surfacing and dedication.

The county fathers, meeting with Juvenile Probation officer Ralph Starkey, discussed the possibilities of establishing park and picnic areas at bridge sites where the county owns right of way land.

Starkey indicated that labor for the picnic sites could possibly be drawn from local delinquents who are on probation. Charles Morris, Commission chairman, said the proposal will come under further study, including contracts with farmers currently maintaining the county lands.

One of the areas mentioned in the proposal was the bridge site near Whisler.

Area Youth Struck by Car

Larry Joe Caldwell, 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Caldwell, Mt. Sterling, was injured late yesterday when struck by a car. The car was driven by Leland Perry Jones of Mt. Sterling. The accident was 1 1/2 miles northwest of Five Points on the Williamsport-Palestine Road.

The youngster, taken to Berger Hospital by his father and brother, suffered a mild concussion, lacerations of the chin and hip and a compound fracture of a pelvic bone.

Jones told Pickaway County Deputy Sheriff George Linder that he did not see the youngster on the road. He reported the accident to the authorities.

No charges were filed. Berger Hospital authorities listed young Caldwell's condition as "fair" at noon today.

Damage Suits Filed Here For $31,026

A Columbus couple filed damage suits today in Pickaway County Common Pleas Court totalling $31,026.15.

Sandra J. and Walter Ingall filed separate suits against Charles J. Harter, Route 3, seeking judgment as the result of an auto accident Nov. 3, 1961, on Route 104 at the intersection of Fox Road.

Mrs. Ingall's suit asks a total of $20,000 for injuries and expenses as a result of the accident. Her alleged injuries include a fractured jaw, permanent loosening of two lower teeth, pain in both knees, ankles and right hip, expenses for four days while she was hospitalized, and loss of wages for two weeks.

Her husband's suit seeks $11,026.15 which included judgment for emergency hospital service, loss of two days wages, transportation while his auto was being repaired, injuries to his infant daughter, and $5,000 for loss of consortium with his wife.

The Ingalls' petitions stated that Harter crossed the center line and struck their vehicle, causing the accident. They also allege that Harter was operating his vehicle while under the influence of intoxicants.

The law firm of Dresbach, Crabbe, Newlon and Bilger represent the Columbus couple in the legal action.

Westinghouse Hit by Strike In Columbus

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — An unauthorized strike at the big Westinghouse appliance plant has stopped all production, a union leader says.

Al Moro, president of Local 746, International Union of Electrical Workers, AFL-CIO, said all of the nearly 4,000 employees at the plant are observing picket lines put up about noon Monday.

He said the strike is not authorized. However, he added, he was seeking authorization from the international "to protect the workers."

The walkout started over grievances centered on incentive pay rate. Also involved are problems in working conditions.

Moro said there have been no threats of violence at the West Side plants. He said he contacted plant officials three times Monday seeking to talk over the grievances, but he said they refused to talk until the pickets are withdrawn.

D. B. Fichter, divisional manager of manufacturing at Westinghouse, said the plant is open for all employees who wish to work.

Employees at the plant currently are working under a contract which runs through October 1963. The last strike at the plant was in 1955-56 and lasted 156 days. That dispute, however, was over a new contract.

Twin Baloons To Hoist Huge Telescope with Television Eye

NORWALK, Conn. (AP)—Scientists will float a telescope 80,000 feet above the earth early next year, and, by television, view the universe.

Twin balloons will hoist the telescope next February or March, when Mars is comparatively close to the earth.

The scope's 36-inch quartz mirror will have sharper vision of Mars than the giant 200-inch telescope atop Mt. Palomar, Calif.

At a distance of 1,000 miles, it will be able to view an object about six inches wide. At the same distance, it will be able to distinguish two spots of light only 30 inches apart.

The entire apparatus, weighing more than six tons and dubbed Stratoscope II, will be launched from the new scientific balloon flight station at Palestine, Tex.

Later this month, the L-shaped 18-foot-long telescopic mount will be disassembled at the Perkin-Elmer Corp. plant here and the parts shipped to Texas.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration is financing the first $336,000-flight of Stratoscope II to take a close look at Mars.

Once aloft, the entire balloon contraption—stretching in length to nearly the height of the Washington Monument, 555½ feet—will sway to and fro like a clock pendulum.

But motors and special television cameras will keep the telescope pointed at a single spot.

Dr. Martin Schwarzschild of Princeton University, director of the project, hopes his apparatus will enable him to get a close look at the "white dots" on Venus and the "canals" of Mars.

Each flight will last just one night. At dawn, the balloons, radio-controlled by aircraft, will be valued down to 5,000 feet by releasing some helium. There a helicopter will take over and lower the apparatus.

Joseph Cotton Grows Brave, Heads for Play in New York

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "It's a great name for a play, 'A Calculated Risk,' because they all are."

The speaker was Joseph Cotton, who had just packed eight trunks and was heading for New York to star in the play with his wife, British actress Patricia Medina. It opens Oct. 31.

"I thought we were pretty brave taking eight trunks instead of an overnight bag," Cotton said. "You never know what's going to happen to a play. I don't think anyone does."

"Sometimes, there's the smallest difference between a hit and a flop."

"When we were trying 'Philadelphia Story' out of town, it just didn't seem to work. Then John Van Druten came up from New York and suggested we move this scene here and that one there. The audience roared. You know how well it did on Broadway."

"Then comes the time when you've made a hit with a play on Broadway and Hollywood decides to do the film version—with a different cast."

"They used Katharine Hepburn in the movie version, too, but I remember when I arrived in Hollywood to do 'Citizen Kane.' Nobody knew me."

"I was talking to someone about 'Philadelphia Story' and she asked me, 'Oh, did you do the Cary Grant role or the Jimmy Stewart part?' I told her, 'Madam, I created the Cary Grant role.'"

Cotton and his striking brunette wife starred in another play earlier this year which never reached Broadway. "RX Murder."

"The play did well on the road, but just didn't seem to be strong enough to take to Broadway and meet the competition," Cotton explained.

Do they suffer from opening night jitters?

"We both do," Cotton admitted. Pat shivered agreement.

"An opening night audience is like no other," Cotton remarked.

Bus Driver Is Indicted

RAVENNA, Ohio (AP)—Second degree manslaughter indictments have been returned against Steve Amicarelli, 42, of Youngstown, driver of a bus involved in an Ohio Turnpike collision that took two lives and injured 29 other persons.

George Martin, Portage County prosecutor, said two secret indictments were returned last week against Amicarelli.

The bus driver pleaded innocent Monday to a charge of failure to stop in the assured clear distance. That charge, too, stemmed from the Aug. 17 crash.

Amicarelli was released on $50 bail after the Municipal Court arraignment. His hearing was set for Oct. 4.

The collision near the Streetsboro interchange on the turnpike involved the bus and a truck loaded with heavy steel rods.

Singer Tommy Sands Gambles On Switch to Straight Drama

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Tommy Sands, the Shreveport kid who parlayed a $2 guitar into a $350,000 a year singing career, is gambling a chunk of it Wednesday night on a solder with a stutter.

Sands, sometimes known as Frank Sinatra's son-in-law, is aiming at making the same big switch—from singer to serious actor—that The Voice pulled off several years ago.

Sinatra did it as Maggio in the film "From Here to Eternity."

Tommy will do battle on U.S. Steel Hour's television show, "Inner Panic."

Although their careers have had a strong parallel lately, Tommy is emphatic that he's doing this on his own.

"I have my career, he has his," Tommy said at lunch the other day. "And they're both entirely separate."

Tommy, 25, and Frank's daughter, Nancy, 22, celebrate their second wedding anniversary Tuesday. But Tommy's career was soaring long before that.

It started when, at the advanced age of 8, he wandered into a Shreveport, La., radio station with his guitar and announced he wanted a job as a folk singer. He got it. After years as a child singer and a radio disc jockey, Tommy decided to try Hollywood.

Flier Burned In Simulated Space Cabin

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Fire Sunday injured one of two officers in a simulated space cabin at Brooks Air Force Base.

Capt. Carl C. Fletcher Jr. of San Bernardino, Calif., was in serious condition at Lackland Air Force Base Hospital from smoke inhalation.

His companion, Capt. Dean B. Smith, of San Antonio, escaped serious injury.

The men entered the large tank-like cabin simulator 14 days ago and were to have finished the "flight" today. They volunteered for the experiment, the 14th at the school of Aerospace Medicine. It was the first one to have trouble.

Fletcher and Smith were at a simulated 27,000 feet and the atmosphere in the sealed cabin was almost pure oxygen when the fire broke out.

Officials have not determined the cause of the fire, which badly damaged the cabin, designed to duplicate conditions in space and test man's capabilities in the environment.

Judge Studies Apportionment Suit Transfer

CINCINNATI (AP) — A suit challenging the system of apportionment for the Ohio House of Representatives has been taken under advisement by U.S. District Court Judge John W. Peck.

Judge Peck took the suit under advisement Monday after hearing arguments on a motion to transfer the case to the Columbus district where a similar suit has been filed. He said he was inclined to grant the motion.

Both suits attack the constitutionality of the 60-year-old Hanna amendment to the 1851 Ohio Constitution. The amendment guarantees each county at least one representative. Before it was adopted, counties could be lumped together for representation in the House.

The Cincinnati suit was brought by the City Charter Committee. It named as defendants Gov. Michael V. DiSalle, State Auditor Rhodes and Secretary of State Ted Brown in addition to the boards of elections in Adams, Brown, Clinton and Highland counties.

Judge Peck declined to rule on another motion in which the four counties asked to have the suit dismissed. Peck said a three-judge panel would have to rule on this.

The pipeline systems that keep on growing

Our natural gas system reaches into the heart of industrial America—the Midwest and East. Every year, these booming regions consume new record quantities of natural gas. To keep pace with these mounting demands, we will, by year's end, have increased the daily delivery capacity of our natural gas system by 225,000,000 cubic feet . . . enough to heat over a million new homes. This will bring the total daily delivery capacity of the system to 2.58 billion cubic feet, more than twice what it was ten years ago.

Also, we continue to expand our Little Big Inch System, which transports motor fuels, fuel oils and LPGases to the markets of the Midwest. The Little Big Inch is the nation's largest common carrier petroleum products pipeline. In addition to pipelining natural gas and petroleum products, we are studying the fuller utilization of liquefied natural gas and gasified coal. Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation.

"When we were trying 'Philadelphia Story' out of town, it just didn't seem to work. Then John Van Druten came up from New York and suggested we move this scene here and that one there. The audience roared. You know how well it did on Broadway."

"Then comes the time when you've made a hit with a play on Broadway and Hollywood decides to do the film version—with a different cast."

"They used Katharine Hepburn in the movie version, too, but I remember when I arrived in Hollywood to do 'Citizen Kane.' Nobody knew me."

"I was talking to someone about 'Philadelphia Story' and she asked me, 'Oh, did you do the Cary Grant role or the Jimmy Stewart part?' I told her, 'Madam, I created the Cary Grant role.'"

Cotton and his striking brunette wife starred in another play earlier this year which never reached Broadway, "RX Murder."

"The play did well on the road, but just didn't seem to be strong enough to take to Broadway and meet the competition," Cotton explained.

Do they suffer from opening night jitters?

"We both do," Cotton admitted. Pat shivered agreement.

"An opening night audience is like no other," Cotton remarked.

Rockefeller of New York and his daughter, Mrs. William Strawbridge Jr., previewed a new collection of primitive art at the Museum of Primitive Art in New York City with a mixture of pride and sadness. ## Singer Tommy Sands Gambles On Switch to Straight Drama

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Tommy Sands, the Shreveport kid who parlayed a $2 guitar into a $350,000 a year singing career, is gambling a chunk of it Wednesday night on a solder with a stutter.

Sands, sometimes known as Frank Sinatra's son-in-law, is aiming at making the same big switch—from singer to serious actor—that The Voice pulled off several years ago.

Sinatra did it as Maggio in the film "From Here to Eternity."

Tommy will do battle on U.S. Steel Hour's television show, "Inner Panic."

Although their careers have had a strong parallel lately, Tommy is emphatic that he's doing this on his own.

"I have my career, he has his," Tommy said at lunch the other day, "and they're both entirely separate."

Tommy, 25, and Frank's daughter, Nancy, 22, celebrate their second wedding anniversary Tuesday. But Tommy's career was soaring long before that.

It started when, at the advanced age of 8, he wandered into a Shreveport, La., radio station with his guitar and announced he wanted a job as a folk singer. He got it. After years as a child singer and a radio disc jockey, Tommy decided to try Hollywood.

In 1957, the Kraft Theater was looking around for someone who could play an Elvis Presley type role on a television segment. Presley's manager, Col. Tom Parker, said they couldn't meet his terms, but suggested Tommy. He was an overnight success.

A record of the song he sang on the show that night, "Teenage Crush" sold over a million copies.

The next morning, telegrams began coming in with motion picture and recording offers.

He signed with 20th Century-Fox and made four movies that, as a friend put it, "were bombs—too much singing."

"Because I made my big success with a rock 'n' roll song, I was typed," Tommy explained.

"What I've wanted to do from the start," said Tommy, "is combine singing—the kind of singing I do best—with serious dramatic acting."

Officials have not determined the cause of the fire, which badly damaged the cabin, designed to duplicate conditions in space and test man's capabilities in the environment.

Commie Weatherman's Plight

Under the communists, even the weather becomes political. Or at least weather reporting and forecasting.

The Communist Chinese appear to be on their way to another crop failure this year. Part of it, of course, is due to conditions over which they have no control. But a great part of it to the massive goof-up that seems characteristic of communist programs.

To save face, Red Chinese authorities have been stressing adverse weather. They haven't exactly been lying, but they have been emphasizing the bad weather so if agriculture falls on its face again this year nobody will blame the government.

While talking about the weather, the regime also has been quietly restoring some of the peasant's incentives — giving him a bit of ground to work as his own, decentralizing planning a little. All the time, of course, hoping that everybody will be so busy thinking about the weather that no one will notice this represents a retreat for the regime.

Life in Communist China is hard, not only for the poor hungry peasant, but also for the weatherman, who has to follow the party line.

Peace at Last

A Civil War cannon that stands in the Rhode Island Capitol in Providence has finally been disarmed, 99 years after it was loaded.

Two and a half pounds of black powder was found in it. Naval ordnance experts said it was a miracle some cigar-smoking legislator hadn't set it off and collapsed the capitol rotunda as a result. Or even a hard jarring could have done the job, they said.

Let's give thanks that the cannon has at last been rendered harmless. And let's grasp the incident as a sign that perhaps the Civil War is finally ending.

Human Race Is 'Lost Cause'

NEW YORK (AP) — Novelist James Jones, who enjoys life hugely himself, feels the human race is a lost cause.

"I'm pessimistic about mankind," he said cheerfully. "I think mankind is a dead race — one way or the other."

"Either he'll be the springboard to a greater race that will be as much above present man as man is above the animals, or else he'll kill himself off," Jones says.

"In either case man—as he is now—goes. The question is not whether to save mankind, but whether mankind has the guts to change."

Jones, a soldier turned author, started the literary world in 1951 with "From Here to Eternity," which sold more than four million copies. Critics now are hailing as an able sequel, a raw, realistic story of combat on Guadalcanal, where Jones himself was wounded.

Jim, the most powerful writer to emerge from World War II, looks like his prose sounds. He's a slugger — thick-chested, muscular, with a chin like a concrete dam.

Now married and the father of a 3-year-old daughter, Jim roams between Paris and the island of Jamaica. He likes to box, skin dive, and collect guns, knives, jazz records and Indian carvings. Stubborn, toughly sentimental, he likes to go on an occasional binge. But he is a laborious craftsman to whom the production of a novel is usually a lonely, arduous one-man military campaign, lasting from three to four years.

"I don't wait for inspiration—no real writer can," he says. "I just sit my behind down at the typewriter and work. It takes me an hour to get started. I just sit there until I get geared up. Then I keep at it for five more hours."

"I also like to keep in good physical shape. But I wouldn't give up living to stay in shape. There are a lot of enticements in living."

Jim put in five years in the Army, and knew some lean post-war years before book and movie sales flooded him with a tide of dollars, which he enjoys spending with both hands.

"Success hasn't changed my basic viewpoint," he said, opening a can of beer in his hotel room. "It has given me money, and I live better — which I'm not against."

But success is like history. It's just one big lie—except for the money."

He likes to feel that he looks at the world honestly and without illusion or hypocrisy.

"Life has been great to me," he acknowledged, "but it is still scary. And for most people it is nothing but a jungle."

"You get that feeling when you are skin diving. Things sting and hurt you and don't even know it. They have no conception of what they do."

"People are like that too. But there is a hunger in man, as he is made up now, to perpetuate cruelty."

"Morally, man is now the same in peace as he is in war. The only difference is that in peace the knives people stick in each other are only verbal."

"But man has to learn to be better than that. If he is going to evolve into a higher type of life form, he has to become a type that would prefer to accept pain rather than inflict it on others."

"Unless man does evolve, he is likely to kill himself off. But evolution takes time, and the question is whether he has the time left."

Asked to put his philosophy in a single sentence, Jones pondered. His green eyes flickered into a smile.

"Life is a roller coaster ride, so—he tipped up the beer can again—"hold on tight!"

The Business World

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP)—Widening popularity of stock ownership among Americans—either as individuals or collectively through mutual funds or pension funds—can in itself have been a factor in the sharp ups and downs in stock prices that this year have confused many of the new owners.

How big a factor was argued, with the help of slide rules, at one of the meetings here of the American Statistical Association.

The large inflow of individual savings into the funds and then into the markets helped boost prices, some economists hold. And then this year switching of issues has added to the unsettling.

Statisticians say that the buying and selling policies of the mutual funds, and even more of the pension funds, are giving the market a new look. Part of the funds' buying of stocks was compulsive, they hold, because the funds themselves were growing so fast and had to put money to work.

Mutual fund managers stoutly rejected any implication that the operation of the funds hasn't been to the best interest of their shareholders, or that their stock market activities caused the price breaks in May and June or the dawdling of the market in recent days.

Contending that mutual fund purchases significantly affected price movements of individual stocks is Douglas Vickers, one of the University of Pennsylvania professors who worked on the controversial Wharton School survey of mutual fund performances for the Securities & Exchange Commission.

Even more influential is stock buying by the pension funds, says Vito Natrella, assistant director of the SEC division of trading and exchanges.

Vickers says funds tend to buy on balance prior to upswings and to sell on balance prior to downswings. Since this is what investors in mutual fund shares expect from expert management, they can't quarrel with that.

But Vickers' contention is that such buying or selling seems to have contributed to the changes, whether up or down. So the growing holdings of common stocks by the funds in recent years has factor to the many that the individual investor must take into account when assessing his own portfolio.

Natrella says the pension funds are really the most influential institutional group in the stock market, since they have been growing spectacularly since 1950 and are putting more than half of their new receipts into common stocks. Such purchases increased a bit in the first half of this year despite the faltering of the market.

The pension fund money flows into stock more regularly than assets of the mutual funds, Natrella says. Since they often concentrate on the popular issues, their holdings tend to cut the floating supply of these stocks. The resultant thin market is credited with causing some of the wide swings in prices that have characterized the market in recent months.

Both Vickers and Natrella offered their findings as statistics and nothing more — no accusations, no recommendations.

But the validity of the findings may be disputed and any implications challenged by the funds—depositories for the savings of millions of Americans.

Insurance benefits paid to American individuals and families has reached a record level of $40 billion a year.

AN ARTHRITIC MOUNTAINEER came into a small and totally unexpected inheritance and decided to buy a second-hand jalopy to ease the burden of his declining years.

The cheapest he could find in all Missouri was $235, but the dealer reminded him, "You get five good tires thrown in free; they haven't gone more'n 40,000 miles."

"Forget the tires," said the mountaineer. "I don't want any on my car. When I'm auto riding I want to know it."

A slick college senior, out with his steady in his roadster, headed for the side of the turnpike the minute they were beyond the city limits. "But, Jerry," she protested, "why stop here where everybody will see us? There are so many nicer places down the road a way." "Here we stay," said the swain firmly. "I believe in love at first site."

Neo-Nazi Movement

The Neo-Nazi is an Anglo-American Movement which has developed in Great Britain when Hitler was in control of Germany and which appealed to those Britishers who were sympathetic with Hitler's National Socialism and his anti-Semitism. The movement made no great strides in Great Britain and its leader, Sir Oswald Moseley, was always regarded as an object of ridicule. Nevertheless as there are always haters in the world, there are targets for their hatred.

In the United States, the pro-Nazi movement was originally a directly subsidized effort of Nazi Germany. Its organization was called The Bund and its leader was one, Fritz Kuhn. This phase of the Nazi movement ended with World War II and the effective FBI campaign against spies and saboteurs.

The Neo-Nazi, as an anti-Semitic movement, reactivates itself at no scene, although he put up quite an argument."

the same time that a violent anti-Semitic effort reappears in all Communist countries, particularly in Soviet Russia.

Anti-Semitism has a long history in Europe, particularly during the Middle Ages when there was an insistence upon a monolithic society. There were periods when the Jews were the only group that had a distinctive religion apart from the general Catholic affiliation upon which some rulers insisted. In Eastern Europe, where Christianity was affiliated with Byzantium rather than Rome, the same tendency toward monolithism existed. In fact, the national churches of the East were used as a political arm of the government and an effort was made, particularly in Russia, to avoid variances of religious thought and experience. In the Spain of Ferdinand and Isabella, unity in religion was equated with unity in the state. This resulted in the expulsion of the Jews and the impoverishment of the country.

Khrushchev, whose policies are closer to those of Peter the Great and Catherine the Great than to Lenin and Stalin is now using anti-Semitism as a weapon against the West. His purpose is the same as Ferdinand and Isabella's, namely, absolute national unity.

The Neo-Nazi Movement in the United States is as much anti-Negro as it is anti-Semitic. It favors racial purity — a genetic problem which, after centuries of assimilation, seems not to be solvable on any terms.

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy has appointed four Jews and six Catholics to the Supreme Court. But none has ever named a Negro to this highest tribunal.

The closest to that for a Negro has been the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals. One is there now, Judge William Hastie on the appellate bench in Philadelphia. Today another comes before the Senate for approval.

He is Thurgood Marshall, whom President Kennedy appointed over a year ago to the U.S. 2nd Circuit Court of Appeals, which serves New York, Connecticut and Vermont. Marshall has led a dedicated life.

Since the 1930s—as chief counsel for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People—he has steered this nation's most famous racial desegregation cases to success in the Supreme Court.

It was a long, historic fight. It made possible the more direct action being taken today in the South by Negroes and whites in freedom rides, passive resistance and other forms of protest against racial segregation.

Almost certainly these protests would have been impossible without the work done by Marshall and the NAACP. Ironically, some anti-segregationists today seem to think the Marshall-NAACP tactics are too slow, too negative.

Kennedy named Marshall to the 2nd Circuit Court on Sept. 23, 1961. It was a cinch he would run into some bottlenecks, before he got approval, in a Senate where Southern Democrats hold powerful positions.

The Senate quit for 1961 without acting on the Marshall nomination. On Oct. 23, President Kennedy gave Marshall an interim appointment, which put him on the court until the Senate returned this year.

From January until last week a Senate Judiciary subcommittee, headed by Olin D. Johnston, South Carolina Democrat, prolonged consideration of Marshall until finally Kennedy and Northern liberals protested.

Last week the full committee, headed by Sen. James Eastland, Mississippi Democrat, approved Marshall. The vote was 11 to 4. Four Southern Democrats voted against.

Then the nomination went to the full Senate for approval or disapproval and, no doubt, debate.

The fight Marshall made had its immediate roots in 1896 when the Supreme Court made racial segregation in the United States official with a decision which said it was all right to segregate Negroes in public places provided the treatment they got was equal to that given whites.

As history showed, the treatment Negroes got turned out to be anything but equal.

In a country which prides itself on equal justice under law, Negroes, in view of that 1896 court verdict, could take one of two courses: direct action—even though peaceful—in the form of demonstrations or passive resistance. Or, fighting in the courts in hope of overturning eventually the decision of 1896.

Marshall and the NAACP took the road through the courts, knowing it would be a long, case-by-case struggle, based on the

$900 Million Public Works Bill Given JFK

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate sent to President Kennedy Monday a bill authorizing $900 million of public works projects to create jobs in economically distressed areas in the next year. The vote was 45-22.

First, the Senate overrode 38-30 a Republican attempt to correct a clerical error in the measure. This would have sent it back to the House and, Democrats said, might have doomed it in a parliamentary snarl in the adjournment rush.

The version of the legislation sent to the White House is quite different from Kennedy's original proposal but congressional leaders said it was acceptable to the administration.

The President asked $600 million for immediate projects plus $2 billion of standby authority for use in a recession.

Under the bill sent to the President, the money could be spent in areas eligible for aid under the 1961 depressed areas laws and in communities which have suffered 6 per cent or more unemployment in 9 of the past 12 months. One-third of the money would go to rural areas which qualify.

A wide range of projects would be eligible.

Ohio Senators Split On Public Works Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ohio's two Democratic senators took opposing views on a House-amended public works project bill which the Senate concurred in and sent to President Kennedy.

Sen. Stephen M. Young was one of the 45 senators who voted to adopt the House changes Monday. His colleague from Cleveland, Sen. Frank J. Lausche, voted no. The bill authorizes $900 million in public works projects to create jobs in economically hard-hit areas.

idea of chipping away at the 1896 verdict by repeated victories in a later Supreme Court.

This was not a fantasy. If the Supreme Court in the end reversed the ruling of 1896 it would not be the first time in history that the court had done that to itself.

So Marshall began the journey through the courts, fighting segregation in the higher levels of education—and in other public places, like buses, housing, trains—and finally getting down to the primary schools.

Those who think a more direct course would have been the faster road seem to overlook a few realities. In the decade of the 1930s—when Marshall and the NAACP began their long fight—119 Negroes were lynched in this country. These figures are cited by the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights.

Besides, at a time when the 1896 decision still made segregation the general law, direct actionists would have been under a handicap. The American attitude toward segregation underwent a slow change.

Marshall's greatest victory came on May 17, 1954, when the court undid the work of 1896 and ruled out segregation in public schools. When the government backed up this ruling, resistance in the South began to crumble. It is not yet all gone—but it is mortally dented.

TODAY In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Tuesday, Sept. 11, the 254th day of 1962. There are 111 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this day in 1777, Colonial forces were defeated in the battle of Brandywine. During the fighting, a British soldier, Patrick Ferguson, had a chance to shoot a colonial officer but refrained because the officer's back was turned. The next day Ferguson learned the Colonial officer was George Washington.

On this date:

In 1609, Henry Hudson discovered the island of Manhattan.

In 1814, the United States was saved from an invasion by the Duke of Wellington's veterans of the Napoleonic wars by defeating the British in the battle of Lake Champlain.

In 1850, the Swedish nightingale, Jenny Lind, gave her first American concert at Castle Garden in New York.

In 1940, Winston Churchill warned England to be prepared for a Nazi attempt at invasion.

In 1943, the major part of the Italian fleet surrendered at Malta.

Today's birthdays: Sen. Robert Kerr, D-Okla., is 64.

Kennedy will hold a news conference at 6 p.m. Eastern Daylight Savings Time the same day.

Polaris Sub Base at Guam Planned

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Navy has announced it will base Polaris missile submarines at Guam, strategically located in the mid-Pacific about 1,800 miles from Red China.

The announcement gave no date for moving the nuclear-powered subs into the Pacific, but the Navy time table reportedly calls for posting the first of them off Red China by late next year.

The action will make the Asian flank of the Communist world vulnerable to 1,400-mile range hydrogen bomb-tipped rockets carried by subs.

Each Polaris sub mounts 16 of the missiles and Adm. Roy S. Benson, Pacific sub force commander, said last June as many as 10 Polaris subs will be ranging the Pacific within two years.

The Navy announcement said that Apra Harbor at Guam will be the home port for a missile submarine tender like the Proteus which is now moored at Holy Loch in Scotland.

The Proteus serves the U.S. submarines which are on patrol in the North Atlantic within striking range of Russia and the rest of Communist Europe.

The United States now has nine

Polaris subs in commission out of a planned 41.

The Proteus is due to be replaced by a newly commissioned sub tender Hunley late this year or early next.

Next year, another nine of these subs are due to join the fleet.

At that time, the Proteus would be available for possible movement into the Pacific after some overhaul work in the United States.

In addition a third sub tender, the Holland, is being built at Pascagoula, Miss. Plans call for it to be ready in about a year.

Submarine tenders are capable of any kind of sub repair work, except a major overhaul. They can service the nuclear power plants of Polaris submarines.

Joint Chiefs Shun Movie About Revolt

WASHINGTON (AP)—Pentagon officials, shuddering at the thought, have waved off a tentative suggestion that the Defense Department cooperate in the filming of a new novel about a Joint Chiefs of Staff plot to seize control of the government.

The novel, published today, tells about "Seven Days in May" sometime in the 1970s.

During those seven fictional days a colonel in the chief's office discovers evidence of the plot and manages to reach the president with his information.

To save the country the plotting generals decide to take over.

The novel was written by Fletcher Knebel and Charles W. Bailey of the Washington bureau of the Cowles publications, and published by Harper & Row, New York.

Representatives of a couple of film companies came to the Pentagon several weeks ago to sound out the Defense Department on possible assistance in producing a film version.

An official, whose job includes decisions on such proposals, conferred with them and looked over the novel.

He is reported to have told the movie men that the Defense Department is not interested in participating in anything that suggests the Pentagon hatches plots to wrest control from civilian government.

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Hamilton County Democratic Executive Committee is considering the County Policy Committee's recommendation not to endorse Richard D. Kennedy's candidacy for congressman-at-large.

Kennedy, of Cleveland, has been in hot water because of his civil rights views ever since his surprise victory in the May 8 primary.

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — Presidents have appointed four Jews and six Catholics to the Supreme Court. But none has ever named a Negro to this highest tribunal.

The closest to that for a Negro has been the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals. One is there now, Judge William Hastie on the appellate bench in Philadelphia. Today another comes before the Senate for approval.

He is Thurgood Marshall, whom President Kennedy appointed over a year ago to the U.S. 2nd Circuit Court of Appeals, which serves New York, Connecticut and Vermont. Marshall has led a dedicated life.

Since the 1930s—as chief counsel for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People—he has steered this nation's most famous racial desegregation cases to success in the Supreme Court.

Monday Club in Initial Season Meet

Monday Club members held their first meeting of the year last night in the trustees room at the Pickaway County Public Library. Mrs. Mary K. May, retiring president, presented the gavel to the new incoming president, Mrs. George Barnes.

Mrs. Clark Will, program chairman, presented the subject for the year, "Trends in Education, Literature, Music, Art and Drama". Mrs. E. K. Black then read her paper, "A Liberal Education". She stressed the following thoughts.

Liberal education has been defined as nothing less than a complete education within each man's limits of human reason and imagination.

No one escapes education. It comes with pleasure, work and disappointment, through friends and lovers, in laws and customs, religion, art, posters and proverbs. Such education is unconscious and informal. The education of which everyone is aware proceeds by definite stages, the student growing older, advances to new levels of difficulty for which we have not only terms but institutions.

When we raise our sight, strive for education, dedicate ourselves to the highest goals of our society, we are enrolling in an ancient and meaningful cause, the age long struggle of man to realize the best that is in him. Man reaching toward the most exalted goals he can conceive, man striving impatiently and restlessly for excellence, has achieved great religious insights, created great works of art, penetrated secrets of the universe and set standards of conduct which give meaning to the phrase "the dignity of man".

What are the moving and meaningful ideas that will inspire and sustain people as they strive for excellence? We believe in individual fulfillment; equality of opportunity so that every individual should be enabled to achieve the best that is in him. The chief instrument we have devised to accomplish this is the educational system.

In feudal times the possibility for advancement or for change in social position or economic status was virtually non-existent. Regardless of individual talent or motivation it was virtually impossible to rise above the barriers set by heritage.

Our freedom and our equality have resulted in problems as well as privileges. Are we nourishing the talents that will create a great civilization? Our children will respect learning if their elders respect learning. They will value the things of mind and spirit if the society of which they are a part, values them.

We cannot meet the challenge facing our free society unless we can achieve and maintain a high level of morale and drive throughout the society. Prosperity and morale are not inseparable. It is possible to be prosperous and apathetic. Men must have goals which in their eyes, merit effort and commitment; they must believe that their efforts will win them self respect and the respect of others. It would be easier for us to grasp these truths if we weren't so blessedly comfortable. Can we as a people, despite the narcotic of easy living and the endless distractions of a well-heeled society, respond with vigor and courage and dedication to the demands that history has placed upon us?

How should we rise to the challenge? There is one answer, simple but profoundly important, just this; if you believe in a free society, be worthy of a free society. Every good dedicated man strengthens society. Men of integrity, by their very existence, rekindle the belief that as a people we can live above the level of moral squalor. We need that belief.

We must never cease our learning process, regardless of age, or our station in life. We must keep sight of our goals as a nation, a free society, and pursue the with the utmost vigor.

Officers elected for the coming year were: Mrs. Clyde Karshner, Route 2, president; Richard F. Dresbach, Route 1, vice president; Donna Rose Dresbach, Hallsville, secretary; Irwin Dresbach Jr., Kingston, who has just completed 20 years in the navy, treasurer.

Those receiving prizes were Mrs. Clarence Heffner, Charles Dunkle, Miss Patty Dresbach, and Keith Karshner. Mrs. Chlorus Clark, 92, was the oldest member present.

The meeting closed with the group singing "God be with You" accompanied by Mrs. Clarence Heffner at the piano.

The reunion next year will be held the second Sunday in September at the EUB parish house in Hallsville.

DiSalle Finds Rhodes Data Show Change

CINCINNATI (AP)—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle took his drive for reelection into Southwestern Ohio today, charging that campaigning against his Republican opponent, James A. Rhodes, is "like trying to play ping pong on a pogo stick."

Speaking at a breakfast meeting, DiSalle said, "He (Rhodes) throws statistics and figures back and forth in an incoherent numbers game which could lead to various interpretations, the most charitable of which would be a lack of home work or a lack of information."

Of Rhodes' proposed plan for villages for aged in mental hospitals, DiSalle said:

"First he says 11,000 patients can be removed, thus affording more intensive treatment for those left behind in the hospitals."

"Then he turns right around and says the Golden Villages will be staffed by the staff from mental hospitals who no longer will be needed."

Of Rhodes' proposed job plan, the Democrat said:

"In an Aug. 25 release, he set the average national job increase figure at 4.6 per cent. In a Sept. 5 release, he had it at 6.7 per cent."

"In both releases, he mentioned an eight-tenths of one per cent drop in jobs in Hamilton County. On the Aug. 25 he said this amounted to 2,368 jobs, but on Sept. 5 he said this eight-tenths of one per cent meant 3,200 jobs."

Controversial Portsmouth School Opens

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP) — Washington Elementary School, which the Portsmouth School Board once threatened to close permanently, reopened Monday.

The school has been in the center of a controversy stemming from shuffling of district boundaries to bring 25 to 50 white youngsters to previously all-Negro Washington Elementary.

The board made the decision Aug. 8, rescinded it Aug. 29, and decided this weekend to go ahead with it. Only seven or eight white pupils attended Monday, but officials said word may not have reached all parents.

Members of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) picketed the school last week when it was believed that integration of the school was to be postponed a year.

There were no pickets Monday, but six white persons picketed Lincoln Elementary School in an adjoining district to protest integration.

Dear Abby: by Abigail Van Buren

The Truth Will Out!

DEAR ABBY: I am shocked and somewhat confused at the advice of a woman I thought to be a very fine person. I am a very young widow (27), have no children, and recently moved to a new community to start a new life. I am employed in a small office. A co-worker (unmarried) took me under her wing and promised to introduce me to some eligible young men. Then she told me to tell them I was a widow. I should say I am a divorcee. She said a divorcee had a much better chance of remarrying than a widow. Is this true? Or am I just a country girl?

WIDOWED
DEAR WIDOW: Honesty is always the best policy. The truth will only set you free—it might also get you married.

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a man who will lie about his age?

KNOWS ONE
DEAR KNOWS: I would try not to think about him at all.

DEAR ABBY: A friend of ours invited us to a "surprise birthday party" he is planning for his wife. Here are the facts. He has invited 22 people to come to his home, and told us each to bring refreshments to feed 22. He also suggested we each bring a birthday gift. Now this man is by no means in the poor house. In fact, he is better off than most of the people he invited. Have you ever heard of a "pot luck birthday party"? He has pulled stunts like this before. We don't want to offend his wife by not coming because we like her, but we want to know what to do about an invitation like this.

PERTURBED
DEAR PERTURBED: Tell your friend that if he is planning a surprise party for his wife, it is up to him to furnish the refreshments. He is due for a "surprise" himself if he makes a practice of abusing friendships.

Unload your problem on Abby. For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to ABBY, care of this paper.

Pants are a very important item in the college wardrobe for fall. They will be worn in the classroom, around the campus and for active as well as spectator sports.

The well-tailored slender silhouettes are the ones that have won honors with co-eds all over the country and have almost completely replaced the trowsers and bell bottoms this season.

The slacks pictured are all figure-molders but are cut in different styles.

The glen plaids are made with the new low hipline and are topped by a hooded jersey pullover.

A herringbone wool is used for the other version with horizontal leather-trimmed front pockets.

HERRINGBONE WOOL — Leather trim accents these slacks teamed with a leather vest.

Monday Club in Initial Season Meet

Monday Club members held their first meeting of the year last night in the trustees room at the Pickaway County Public Library.

Mrs. Mary K. May, retiring president, presented the gavel to the new incoming president, Mrs. George Barnes.

Mrs. Clark Will, program chairman, presented the subject for the year, "Trends in Education, Literature, Music, Art and Drama".

Mrs. E. K. Black then read her paper, "A Liberal Education". She stressed the following thoughts.

Liberal education has been defined as nothing less than a complete education within each man's limits of human reason and imagination.

No one escapes education. It comes with pleasure, work and disappointment, through friends and lovers, in laws and customs, religion, art, posters and proverbs. Such education is unconscious and informal. The education of which everyone is aware proceeds by definite stages, the student growing older, advances to new levels of difficulty for which we have not only terms but institutions.

When we raise our sight, strive for education, dedicate ourselves to the highest goals of our society, we are enrolling in an ancient and meaningful cause, the age long struggle of man to realize the best that is in him. Man reaching toward the most exalted goals he can conceive, man striving impatiently and restlessly for excellence, has achieved great religious insights, created great works of art, penetrated secrets of the universe and set standards of conduct which give meaning to the phrase "the dignity of man".

What are the moving and meaningful ideas that will inspire and sustain people as they strive for excellence? We believe in individual fulfillment; equality of opportunity so that every individual should be enabled to achieve the best that is in him. The chief instrument we have devised to accomplish this is the educational system. In feudal times the possibility for advancement or for change in social position or economic status was virtually non-existent. Regardless of individual talent or motivation it was virtually impossible to rise above the barriers set by heritage.

Our freedom and our equality have resulted in problems as well as privileges. Are we nourishing the talents that will create a great civilization? Our children will respect learning if their elders respect learning. They will value the things of mind and spirit if the society of which they are a part, values them.

We cannot meet the challenge facing our free society unless we can achieve and maintain a high level of morale and drive throughout the society. Prosperity and morale are not inseparable. It is possible to be prosperous and apathetic. Men must have goals which in their eyes, merit effort and commitment; they must believe that their efforts will win them self respect and the respect of others. It would be easier for us to grasp these truths if we weren't so blessedly comfortable. Can we as a people, despite the narcotic of easy living and the endless distractions of a well-heeled society, respond with vigor and courage and dedication to the demands that history has placed upon us?

How should we rise to the challenge? There is one answer, simple but profoundly important, just this; if you believe in a free society, be worthy of a free society. Every good dedicated man strengthens society. Men of integrity, by their very existence, rekindle the belief that as a people we can live above the level of moral squalor. We need that belief.

We must never cease our learning process, regardless of age, or our station in life. We must keep sight of our goals as a nation, a free society, and pursue the with the utmost vigor.

Aussies Grab U.S. Net Honors

Tennis Star Laver Wins Grand Slam

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP)—Rod (Grand Slam) Laver of Australia sat back today and waited for the professional tennis offers to roll in while he decides what he's worth in dollars and cents.

"But," he said, "right now I'm interested in the Davis Cup and I definitely won't consider any professional contracts until the challenge round in December."

Laver became the second man to score the coveted grand slam—Australian, French, Wimbledon and United States championships—when he whipped his Aussie Davis Cup mate, Roy Emerson, 6-2, 6-4, 5-7, 6-4, under cheerless, gray skies at the West Side Tennis Club for the U.S. title Monday.

Only the great Don Budge had managed to pull off the coup before. Budge did it in 1938.

So, as has become the custom, an Australian won the U.S. title for the seventh straight year. Tony Trabert, in 1955, was the last American to win it. In fact, he was the last native-born finalist.

That was hardly unexpected. But now new troubles loom in the women's division. Margaret Smith, a tall, 20-year-old blonde from Melbourne, also took the women's crown Down Under when she defeated two-time defender Darlene Hard of Long Beach, Calif., 9-7, 6-4 in the women's final.

It was the first time in the 82-year history of the event that an Australian girl has won the championship.

Hutch Says Redlegs Still Can Win Flag

ST. LOUIS (AP)—"As long as we're mathematically alive, we can still win," Manager Fred Hutchinson said as his Cincinnati Reds came through with a grueling 4-3, 11-inning victory over the pesky St. Louis Cardinals Monday night.

Three of the Reds' four runs were due to Frank Robinson's booming bat. Robbie went up five times and hit two homers and a single. The second homer won the game for Cincinnati.

Hutchinson, who broke a window in the Reds' clubhouse after Carl Sawatski's last-inning grand slam routed the Reds Sunday, was more philosophical after the flight to St. Louis.

"Certainly some changes are likely," he said when asked what was likely to happen if the Reds failed to win the pennant race this year.

"You try to strengthen every position if it's possible. But whatever the changes, they won't be born of panic from those two defeats we suffered over the last weekend."

The defeats left the third-place Reds 5½ games behind Los Angeles. That's where they remained this morning, since both the Dodgers and San Francisco won Monday.

The Reds and Cardinals conclude their 1962 series tonight, with Bob Purkey (20-5) or Jim Maloney (8-6) scheduled to oppose Bob Gibson (15-11) of St. Louis.

4 Top Stars Keep NL Flag Struggle Tight

Davis, Wills, Mays, Robinson Help Bums, Giants, Reds Win

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

From among an exclusive circle of four players—Tommy Davis, Maury Wills, Willie Mays and Frank Robinson—likely will emerge the locksmith with the key to the National League throne room.

Each of the quartet, making a strong bid for Most Valuable Player honors, put on outstanding performances Monday as Los Angeles, San Francisco and Cincinnati all won and remained 1-2-3 in that tight struggle for NL supremacy.

Davis hit a grand slam homer and wound up with five runs batted in as the first-place Dodgers walloped the Chicago Cubs 8-1, remaining a half-game in front of second-place San Francisco and 5½ ahead of third-place Cincinnati.

Wills continued his assault on Ty Cobb's stolen base record. The swift Dodger shortstop pilfered three, running his total to 89—only seven short of the record established by the Detroit Hall of Fame in 1915.

Mays, the majors' home run leader, hit No. 43 in the first inning as the Giants got off to a quick start against Pittsburgh and held it all the way behind Billy O'Dell's five-hit pitching for a 4-1 triumph.

Robinson, last year's MVP, provided the defending champion Reds with a 4-3 decision over St. Louis by tagging his second homer of the game and 36th of the season in the 11th inning while raising his batting average to a league-leading .341.

In the NL's only other game, home runs by Ed Mathews and Hank Aaron powered Milwaukee to a 5-2 decision over the New York Mets. Houston and Philadelphia were not scheduled.

In the American League, the first-place New York Yankees whipped Detroit 3-1, the third-place Los Angeles Angels defeated second-place Minnesota 5-0 on Dean Chance's one-hitter, Baltimore edged Boston 2-1 in 12 innings and the Chicago White Sox nipped Kansas City 4-3. Cleveland and Washington were not scheduled.

Davis, who went 1-for-3 and dropped into second place in the batting race with a .339 mark, provided the Dodgers with the big blow—a bases full homer in the third inning off Cubs' starter Dick Ellsworth (8-18) that built their edge to 5-0. Don Drysdale (24-7) allowed only three hits until Manager Walt Alton decided to give him a rest after eight innings and brought in Jack Smith to finish up. Davis' RBI spurge gave him a 137 total, 11 more than runner-up Robinson. Mays has 123.

Wills made it 13 stolen bases in the last five games with his three steals against the Cubs. He has 17 games in which to tie or surpass Cobb, who stole 96 on a 156-game schedule. The Dodgers have played 145 games.

Mays connected off Harvey Haddix (9-6) with Felipe Alou aboard in the first inning and that was all O'Dell (17-12) needed as he went the route for the 18th time.

Robinson drove in three of the four Reds' runs, starting his heroics with a second-inning homer, then sending Vada Pinson home with a single in the fourth before providing the game-winner in the 11th with a homer off Cardinal starter Ernie Broglio (11-8). The Cards had tied it in the eighth on Gene Oliver's homer off Joe Nuxhall.

Mathews broke a 2-2 tie with a one-on-one homer in the seventh and Aaron followed with his 39th for the Braves. The two homers made it 185 against the Mets this season, tying the NL record set by St. Louis in 1955.

Only 28 players have won four varsity football letters at Penn State. NCAA rules no longer permit freshmen to take part in varsity sports.

Iowa State football coach Clay Stapleton has promoted Larry Hannahs, a junior letterman from Circleville, to first-string end on the strong side of his offensive line.

Hannahs moved up on the basis of Saturday's full game scrimmage, films of which the coaching staff reviewed.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald D. Hannahs of 560 Spring-hollow Rd., he played fullback on the Circleville High School football team. He was graduated here in 1960.

David Hannahs, quarterback for the Tigers this year, is his brother.

The CHS grad is playing his second year of varsity football at Iowa State.

Toronto Rambles In IL Playoffs

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Toronto's Maple Leafs, who plowed through the International League in a runaway style during the final two weeks of the season, threaten to keep right on going in the league playoffs which opened Monday night.

The Leafs, who won 15 of their last 17 and almost caught the pennant-winning Jacksonville Suns in the regular season, ripped three Atlanta pitchers for 13 hits and a 6-1 opening game victory.

Jacksonville had a much rougher time of it against fourth place Rochester. Tony Martinez' 11th-inning homer broke up the other semifinal opener, 6-5, for the Suns.

The playoff series continues tonight with Atlanta at Toronto and Rochester at Jacksonville.

Indian Chief Eyes Battle Of Catchers

CLEVELAND (AP) — A good scrap between two baseball players for a permanent position delights any manager. That being the case, Cleveland manager Mel McGaha, who has had his share of troubles this year, can derive some satisfaction over the battle between All-Star catcher John Romano and Rookie Howard (Doc) Edwards.

Edwards has started the last three games and six of the last 10. He is rated better defensively than Romano and is batting .321, compared with Romano's .251.

Romano has not looked good for a long time. He has 20 home runs and 69 runs batted in, compared with Edwards' three homers and nine RBIs. But Romano has been to bat 316 more times. He has batted in exactly 15 runs since the first All Star game two months ago and his catching has deteriorated.

This is in sharp contrast to his sharp hitting and able fielding in June.

Edwards is a scrapper and in four of his five years in pro ball has hit well over .300. Some believe his all-around attributes may be enough to outweigh his power deficiency at bat.

Jim Perry (10-11) tries to extend the Tribe's winning skid to four tonight in a solo-game series against Washington here. Claude Osteen (8-11) will pitch for the Nats.

Bantam King Set To Defend Crown

SAO PAULO, Brazil (AP) — Eder Jofre, the Brazilian bantamweight with the heavyweight's punch, defends his world championship tonight against Jose Medel of Mexico in a match scheduled for 15 rounds at Ibirapuera Stadium.

The 118-pound champion is undefeated in 45 fights, has knocked out his last 12 opponents and has scored 32 kayos over-all—including one against Medel two years ago.

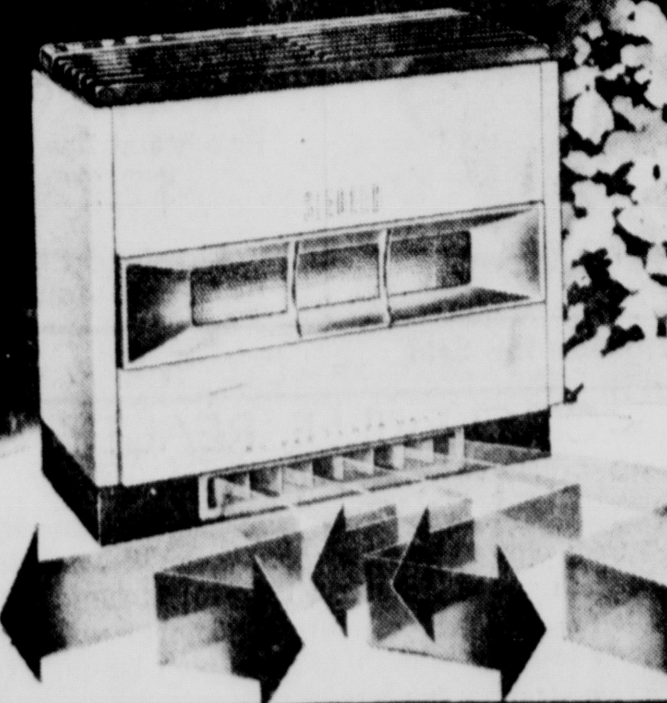

Medel, at 24, two years younger than Jofre, also has made his mark as a heavy hitter. He has knocked out 34, but also has been stopped five times himself in losing 17 of his 70 bouts. The Mexican challenger has won 49 and drawn in four.

The Southwest Conference football champion is pledged each year to serve as host team in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas on New Year's Day.

Aussies Grab U.S. Net Honors

Tennis Star Laver Wins Grand Slam

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP)—Rod (Grand Slam) Laver of Australia sat back today and waited for the professional tennis offers to roll in while he decides what he's worth in dollars and cents.

"But," he said, "right now I'm interested in the Davis Cup and I definitely won't consider any professional contracts until the challenge round in December."

Laver became the second man to score the coveted grand slam—Australian, French, Wimbledon and United States championships—when he whipped his Aussie Davis Cup mate, Roy Emerson, 6-2, 6-4, 5-7, 6-4, under cheerless, gray skies at the West Side Tennis Club for the U.S. title Monday.

Only the great Don Budge had managed to pull off the coup before. Budge did it in 1938.

So, as has become the custom, an Australian won the U.S. title for the seventh straight year. Tony Trabert, in 1955, was the last American to win it. In fact, he was the last native-born finalist.

That was hardly unexpected. But now new troubles loom in the women's division. Margaret Smith, a tall, 20-year-old blonde from Melbourne, also took the women's crown Down Under when she defeated two-time defender Darlene Hard of Long Beach, Calif., 9-7, 6-4 in the women's final.

It was the first time in the 82-year history of the event that an Australian girl has won the championship.

Hutch Says Redlegs Still Can Win Flag

ST. LOUIS (AP)—"As long as we're mathematically alive, we can still win," Manager Fred Hutchinson said as his Cincinnati Reds came through with a grueling 4-3, 11-inning victory over the pesky St. Louis Cardinals Monday night.

Three of the Reds' four runs were due to Frank Robinson's booming bat. Robbie went up five times and hit two homers and a single. The second homer won the game for Cincinnati.

Hutchinson, who broke a window in the Reds' clubhouse after Carl Sawatski's last-inning grand slam routed the Reds Sunday, was more philosophical after the flight to St. Louis.

"Certainly some changes are likely," he said when asked what was likely to happen if the Reds failed to win the pennant race this year.

"You try to strengthen every position if it's possible. But whatever the changes, they won't be born of panic from those two defeats we suffered over the last weekend."

The defeats left the third-place Reds 5½ games behind Los Angeles. That's where they remained this morning, since both the Dodgers and San Francisco won Monday.

The Reds and Cardinals conclude their 1962 series tonight, with Bob Purkey (20-5) or Jim Maloney (8-6) scheduled to oppose Bob Gibson (15-11) of St. Louis.

4 Top Stars Keep NL Flag Struggle Tight

Davis, Wills, Mays, Robinson Help Bums, Giants, Reds Win

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

From among an exclusive circle of four players—Tommy Davis, Maury Wills, Willie Mays and Frank Robinson—likely will emerge the locksmith with the key to the National League throne room.

Each of the quartet, making a strong bid for Most Valuable Player honors, put on outstanding performances Monday as Los Angeles, San Francisco and Cincinnati all won and remained 1-2-3 in that tight struggle for NL supremacy.

Davis hit a grand slam homer and wound up with five runs batted in as the first-place Dodgers walloped the Chicago Cubs 8-1, remaining a half-game in front of second-place San Francisco and 5½ ahead of third-place Cincinnati.

Wills continued his assault on Ty Cobb's stolen base record. The swift Dodger shortstop pilfered three, running his total to 89—only seven short of the record established by the Detroit Hall of Fame in 1915.

Mays, the majors' home run leader, hit No. 43 in the first inning as the Giants got off to a quick start against Pittsburgh and held it all the way behind Billy O'Dell's five-hit pitching for a 4-1 triumph.

Robinson, last year's MVP, provided the defending champion Reds with a 4-3 decision over St. Louis by tagging his second homer of the game and 36th of the season in the 11th inning while raising his batting average to a league-leading .341.

In the NL's only other game, home runs by Ed Mathews and Hank Aaron powered Milwaukee to a 5-2 decision over the New York Mets. Houston and Philadelphia were not scheduled.

In the American League, the first-place New York Yankees whipped Detroit 3-1, the third-place Los Angeles Angels defeated second-place Minnesota 5-0 on Dean Chance's one-hitter, Baltimore edged Boston 2-1 in 12 innings and the Chicago White Sox nipped Kansas City 4-3. Cleveland and Washington were not scheduled.

Davis, who went 1-for-3 and dropped into second place in the batting race with a .339 mark, provided the Dodgers with the big blow—a bases full homer in the third inning off Cubs' starter Dick Ellsworth (8-18) that built their edge to 5-0. Don Drysdale (24-7) allowed only three hits until Manager Walt Alton decided to give him a rest after eight innings and brought in Jack Smith to finish up. Davis' RBI spurge gave him a 137 total, 11 more than runner-up Robinson. Mays has 123.

Wills made it 13 stolen bases in the last five games with his three steals against the Cubs. He has 17 games in which to tie or surpass Cobb, who stole 96 on a 156-game schedule. The Dodgers have played 145 games.

Mays connected off Harvey Haddix (9-6) with Felipe Alou aboard in the first inning and that was all O'Dell (17-12) needed as he went the route for the 18th time.

Robinson drove in three of the four Reds' runs, starting his heroics with a second-inning homer, then sending Vada Pinson home with a single in the fourth before providing the game-winner in the 11th with a homer off Cardinal starter Ernie Broglio (11-8). The Cards had tied it in the eighth on Gene Oliver's homer off Joe Nuxhall.

Mathews broke a 2-2 tie with a one-on-one homer in the seventh and Aaron followed with his 39th for the Braves. The two homers made it 185 against the Mets this season, tying the NL record set by St. Louis in 1955.

Fishing Fine, but 2 Anglers
Not Sure Trip Worth It All

NEWARK, Calif. (AP) — The fishing was fine but was the trip worth it?

That's the question two Newark men are pondering now that they are back safe with their families. It started when two neighbors, John McClary and Keith Oveson, the latter an assistant principal at an elementary school in Hayward, just east of San Francisco Bay, decided to go fishing over the Labor Day weekend.

They went to the Middle Fork area of the San Joaquin River, about 65 miles east of Madera. They spotted a deep, black pool, surrounded by rushing white water. Perfect trout water. To get there, they had to go down cliffs 1,000 feet high.

They set up camp on a sand bar. They caught trout. How many? "We were too busy eating them to keep count," Oveson said.

When it came time to go back, they found they couldn't climb back up the cliffs. They couldn't buck the stream's current and huge boulders blocked their way downstream.

A search was begun when Oveson was reported absent from school.

Wednesday night a search party heard shots fired by the pair and spotted them.

Forest rangers and Air Force rescue experts using a helicopter, ropes and rubber rafts struggled to gain entry into the virtually inaccessible gorge. Finally, Friday, two rangers and two paramedics went down the cliffs and joined McClary and Oveson on the sand bar.

The rescuers hooked up a line to a raft, put McClary and Oveson in the raft and let it float to another sandbar 500 yards downstream. There the helicopter picked them up.

Neither man was hurt except for a bruise on McClary's leg.

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Signs and portents point to a television year which may well send the ladies in the evening audiences scurrying back to the lending libraries for their entertainment. It will be long on war stories and lusty masculine-type comedy but painfully short on the sort of shows most women enjoy—heart-warming drama guaranteed to bring a tear or two, and glamorous sophisticated tales.

One lush oasis in this desert promises to be "The New Loretta Young Show," a CBS series in which the ageless Miss Young plays a widow with seven children.

"We've always had her whirling through a door wearing the latest fashions," explained John London, the producer who also served as overseer of the old Loretta Young Show.

"This time she'll be wearing Jean Louis clothes most of the time. And in the show she'll be an upper middle-class woman. You just can't paint Loretta as a middle-class housewife."

By "upper middle class," London obviously means rich—and the only time you'll catch Miss Young in an apron bending over a hot stove will be on what is obviously cook's day off.

The series was suggested by a story, "Christine's Children" and Christine now has developed so that she's a successful writer—articles and mystery stories.

"But she's obviously been left very well off by her husband," amended London.

Recommended tonight: "The Lloyd Bridges Show," debut, CBS, 8:30 (EDT) — Anthology series with Bridges serving as both host and weekly star.

Senate Majority Leader C. Stanley Mechem of Nelsonville will preside at the hearings in the Deshler Hilton Hotel.

Adoption of the platform will be the major business of the one-day convention opening at 2 p. m. Wednesday in the RKO Palace Theater with Willard W. Brown, GOP candidate for mayor of Cleveland, the permanent chairman.

Highlight of the convention will be an address by Congressman William E. Miller of New York, Republican national chairman, over a 12-station television network starting at 8:30 p. m. A six-station radio hookup also will carry the half hour broadcast.

About 3,000 are expected to attend the convention, nearly 2,000 of them delegates, alternates, candidates and state and local party leaders.

Among the first 200 to receive retraining, he said, will be 18 as automobile body mechanics in Youngstown-Warren, 15 as stenographers in Lancaster-Athens, 15 as licensed practical nurses in Portsmouth, 15 as auto body and auto mechanics in Akron, and 20 each as auto body mechanics, marine operators, transmission-differential repair mechanics, licensed practical nurses and stenographers in Cleveland.

$637 Million Loaned by FHA In Fiscal Year

The Farmers Home Administration of the U. S. Department of Agriculture loaned farm families and other rural people a record $637 million in fiscal 1962 which ended June 30, according to Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman.

The volume of loans, largest during any 12-month period in the agency's history, was 61 per cent larger than the 1961 total of $395.7 million and 106 per cent above the $308.9 million loaned in 1960.

Nearly half of the total loaned during fiscal 1962 went for farm operating expenses, almost a third for the purchase, development, or enlargement of family farms, and about a sixth went for the construction and improvement of houses and service buildings on farms and in rural communities.

Repayment by borrowers during the year totaled $336 million in principal and interest. This compares with repayments of $307 million last year and a similar amount in 1960.

All Farmers Home Administration loans are accompanied by technical advice on farm and financial management. Loans are made only to applicants who are unable to obtain needed credit from conventional lenders.

All farming counties are served by 1,493 local Farmers Home offices. The office serving this area is located at 159 1/2 E. Main St.

David L. Yates and Carl Keg of Yates Motor Company, 1220 S. Court St., have returned from Cincinnati where they viewed the 1963 line of GMC trucks.

The local GMC dealer stated he was impressed with the new power features of the truck line on display at the General Motors Training Center, Cincinnati.

A new model of the 1963 line is a four-cylinder package delivery truck, Yates said, which shows signs of being a leader in delivery truck sales during the coming season.

Yates is planning to view the new line of Buick and Rambler vehicles Friday at Detroit, Mich.

PTA Executive Board Holds 1st Session of School Year

The first meeting of the Circleville Parent-Teacher Association Executive Board was held at the high school with William J. Barthelmas, president, presiding.

Mrs. Mary May Yates, the system's new attendance officer, was introduced in addition to special guests, Fritz Jacobs, superintendent, and Richard Snouffer, high school principal.

The 1961-62 financial report was given by Ross Spalding, treasurer. The balance on hand as of Aug. 31, 1962, was reported to be $449.72; total receipts were $2,603.33, with the Pumpkin Show Booth netting $1,814.63 of this total; memberships accounted for $331 of the receipts; expenditures totaled, $2,153.61.

Plans were discussed for the organizing of a PTA unit for the new Nicholas drive school area.

MRS. CHARLES Kirkpatrick, city health nurse, gave a report on the successful pre-school clinic conducted here. She stressed the changing needs which the clinic must now fulfill and urged parents of pre-school children to take their children to their family physician when possible. She stated that 41 children were examined by the pre-school clinic held this year at Berger Hospital.

Mrs. Kirkpatrick requested that neighborhood chairmen complete the follow-up work on the 41 examined by the clinic.

Jacobs advised the group of the need for duplicate copies of health records now available for grades 1-4 and the necessity of a permanent school record, both medical and scholastic, for each pupil in the city system.

The Membership Committee, headed by Marshall Winner, announced that its annual membership drive would begin within two weeks.

Dave McDonald was named chairman of the 1962 Pumpkin Show Committee. He is to be assisted by: Bob Dick, Robert Wood, Frank Marion, Frank Barnhill, Byron Gulick, Walter Ehmling and Jack Simson.

A Pumpkin Show Food Committee under the direction of Mrs. Cletus Kuhn consists of Mrs. Robert Willis and Mrs. Marshall Winner. The booth schedule is as follows: Wednesday, Court and Walnut; Thursday, Atwater and Wayne; Friday, Corwin, High Street and the high school; Saturday, Franklin and Nicholas Drive.

MR. JACOBS requested a list be prepared of neighborhood PTA officers and dates of their respective meetings and be distributed for the benefit of all units. A committee is to be appointed later to make this directory.

Jacobs told the group that the primary function of a PTA is not fund-raising and suggested the following subjects to be discussed during meetings:

How much time is recommended for homework? How many hours are spent at school daily in the individual subjects such as reading, arithmetic etc.? What is the exact schedule for your school child? What physical needs does your school have and what specialized problems?

Northfield Dem To Study Advice on Defeat of Ayres

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—State Sen. Oliver Ocasek of Northfield, Democratic candidate for Congress, says he has not seen a survey aimed at helping him to unseat Rep. William H. Ayres, Republican of Akron, in November, but that he intends to look into it.

The survey was one of several conducted by Louis Harris and Associates of New York, some of which suggested strategy for Democratic candidates in unseating Republican congressmen.

One on Rep. Ayres suggests a method by which Ocasek can put Ayres "in the hole" on the issue of medical care for the elderly—regardless of which side Ayres chooses to take.

Suggesting that Ocasek demand immediately to know where Ayres stands on President Kennedy's medical care measure, the survey says "Ayres will likely straddle and say he is for medical care for the aged in principle . . .

"If Ayres finally comes around to support the President's position unequivocally, then Ocasek can make a case by saying that his district deserves better than to have a man in Congress who needs an election to make him come clean on the issues . . . It puts the burden on Ayres to fight his way out of a hole . . ."

Regarding the survey's advice for Ocasek not to ally himself too closely with Ohio's top Democrats—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle and Sen. Frank J. Lausche, both seeking re-election—the Northfield Democrat said:

"I am a DiSalle Democrat and plan to campaign with DiSalle at every opportunity."

The survey said DiSalle and Lausche "are so different from the image of the Democratic Party."

Ocasek also differed with the survey in its advice against attacking Ayres "across-the-boards record."

"Ayres' record is an important issue in this campaign and I will attack it," Ocasek said.

Boy Killed In Stolen Car

CLEVELAND (AP)—A 13-year-old boy who told his father he was going to steal a car was killed early today when the stolen vehicle he was driving collided with another auto.

The boy, Bobby Young, was pronounced dead at Forest City Hospital.

The driver of the other car, William Hollman, 39, suffered lacerations. A parked car also was damaged.

Police quoted the boy's father as saying the boy told him Monday night he was going to steal a car, but that nobody took him seriously.

The auto was stolen from a neighbor, and police said it had faulty brakes.

Support for 1962 Corn Crop Is Set at $1.24 Minimum

Prices for the 1962 corn crop will be supported at a minimum of $1.24 per bushel in Pickaway County, Galen D. Mowery, chairman of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee has announced.

Mowery said the minimum rate will not be reduced, but may be increased if the final 1962-crop corn support price determined on the basis of data on Oct. 1 is higher than the minimum price announced last spring.

He stressed the importance of a full understanding by growers of how the 1962 feed grain program affects price supports for the crop. "Corn producers who participate in the 1962 feed grain program will be eligible for price support on their 1962 production," he declared, "but there will be a limit on the amount of corn from eligible farms that can be put under support."

The quantity eligible for support will be based on the farm's established per-acre yield, based on the 1959-60 average, times the 1962 corn acreage as determined by the ASC County Committee.

PRODUCERS of corn who do not participate in the 1962 feed grain program will not be eligible for support on the 1962 corn crop, the chairman added.

To be eligible for support, corn also must have been produced in 1962, must grade No. 3 or better or No. 4 because of test weight only, must meet certain moisture requirements, and must be in adequate storage. The schedule of premiums and discounts is unchanged from the 1961 program.

As in the past, the price-support program for 1962-crop corn will be carried out through farm and warehouse-stored loans and purchase agreements. These will be available from harvesttime through May 31, 1963. Loans will mature on July 31, 1963.

Soviet Growls Warning on Cuba to U.S.

ing to wait until after the U.S. congressional elections in November. The statement noted that East-West talks on the Berlin crisis had paused recently.

"They say that it is difficult for the United States of America to conduct negotiations on a German treaty since elections to the American Congress are coming up in November," the statement said.

The Soviet government said its ships were carrying not only munitions but machinery and agricultural equipment to Cuba to help build up the country. What those ships contain, the government declared, is the affair of the Soviet Union and Cuba.

"Don't put your nose into other people's affairs," it said.

Commenting on reports in the United States that the Soviet Union is building up a base in Cuba, the statement said such a base is not needed since Soviet nuclear weapons can reach any place on earth and aid can be given to any country on earth directly from the territory of the Soviet Union.

"At the request of the Cuban government, and in response to continued threats, the Soviet Union is delivering to Cuba a certain amount of armaments," the statement said.

"Cuban statesmen have asked the Soviet Union also to send military specialists and technicians to teach Cubans how to master modern weapons. Cuba does not possess such experts."

It said it was not Cuban arms which threatened the United States.

"The revolutionary spirit is what you are afraid of, not military means," the statement said.

Ohio Preacher Faces Penalty

KINGSPORT, Tenn. (AP) — A Hamilton, Ohio, preacher has been found in contempt of court here for violating a court order forbidding him from using a loudspeaker at his faith healing services.

Sentencing was withheld after the preacher, the Rev. Arnold Staton, 33, said he planned to terminate his services Monday night.

Staton has been conducting faith healing services in a tent near here for three weeks. Residents of the area obtained an injunction last week preventing him from operating his loudspeaker within 500 feet of their homes. They said the noise disturbed them.

In finding Staton in contempt, Chancellor Jackson C. Raulston said Monday:

"You have every right to conduct services and the residents have every right not to be disturbed."

One on Rep. Ayres suggests a method by which Ocasek can put Ayres "in the hole" on the issue of medical care for the elderly—regardless of which side Ayres chooses to take.

Suggesting that Ocasek demand immediately to know where Ayres stands on President Kennedy's medical care measure, the survey says "Ayres will likely straddle and say he is for medical care for the aged in principal."

"If Ayres finally comes around to support the President's position unequivocally, then Ocasek can make a case by saying that his district deserves better than to have a man in Congress who needs an election to make him come clean on the issues . . . It puts the burden on Ayres to fight his way out of a hole . . ."

Regarding the survey's advice for Ocasek not to ally himself too closely with Ohio's top Democrats—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle and Sen. Frank J. Lausche, both seeking re-election—the Northfield Democrat said:

"I am a DiSalle Democrat and plan to campaign with DiSalle at every opportunity."

The survey said DiSalle and Lausche "are so different from the image of the Democratic Party."

Ocasek also differed with the survey in its advice against attacking Ayres' "across-the-boards record."

"Ayres' record is an important issue in this campaign and I will attack it," Ocasek said.

Teacher Meet Slated Friday

George McDowell, county superintendent of schools, today reminded parents and students of Pickaway County that there will be no school on Friday.

That's the day that local teachers will be a part of the more than 12,000 teachers from 16 central Ohio counties holding the 91st annual convention of the Central Ohio Teachers Assn. in Columbus.

The day-long convention will feature a general session at St. John Arena on the Ohio State University campus in the morning and 37 discussion groups on a wide range of educational topics in the afternoon.

The general session, which will feature an address by Martin Agronsky, radio and television news analyst for the National Broadcasting Co., will begin at 9:30 a. m.

Discussions will emphasize new ideas and promising trends in the school world.

Support for 1962 Corn Crop Is Set at $1.24 Minimum

Prices for the 1962 corn crop will be supported at a minimum of $1.24 per bushel in Pickaway County, Galen D. Mowery, chairman of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, has announced.

Mowery said the minimum rate will not be reduced, but may be increased if the final 1962-crop corn support price determined on the basis of data on Oct. 1 is higher than the minimum price announced last spring.

He stressed the importance of a full understanding by growers of how the 1962 feed grain program affects price supports for the crop. "Corn producers who participate in the 1962 feed grain program will be eligible for price support on their 1962 production," he declared, "but there will be a limit on the amount of corn from eligible farms that can be put under support."

The quantity eligible for support will be based on the farm's established per-acre yield, based on the 1959-60 average, times the 1962 corn acreage as determined by the ASC County Committee.

PRODUCERS of corn who do not participate in the 1962 feed grain program will not be eligible for support on the 1962 corn crop, the chairman added.

To be eligible for support, corn also must have been produced in 1962, must grade No. 3 or better or No. 4 because of test weight only, must meet certain moisture requirements, and must be in adequate storage. The schedule of premiums and discounts is unchanged from the 1961 program.

As in the past, the price-support program for 1962-crop corn will be carried out through farm and warehouse-stored loans and purchase agreements. These will be available from harvesttime through May 31, 1963. Loans will mature on July 31, 1963.

Soviet Grows Warning on Cuba to U.S.

ing to wait until after the U.S. congressional elections in November. The statement noted that East-West talks on the Berlin crisis had paused recently.

"They say that it is difficult for the United States of America to conduct negotiations on a German treaty since elections to the American Congress are coming up in November," the statement said.

The Soviet government said its ships were carrying not only munitions but machinery and agricultural equipment to Cuba to help build up the country. What these ships contain, the government declared, is the affair of the Soviet Union and Cuba.

"Don't put your nose into other people's affairs," it said.

Commenting on reports in the United States that the Soviet Union is building up a base in Cuba, the statement said such a base is not needed since Soviet nuclear weapons can reach any place on earth and can be given to any country on earth directly from the territory of the Soviet Union.

"At the request of the Cuban government, and in response to continued threats, the Soviet Union is delivering to Cuba a certain amount of armaments," the statement said.

"Cuban statesmen have asked the Soviet Union also to send military specialists and technicians to teach Cubans how to master modern weapons. Cuba does not possess such experts."

It said it was not Cuban arms which threatened the United States.

"The revolutionary spirit is what you are afraid of, not military means," the statement said.

Ohio Preacher Faces Penalty

KINGSFORD, Tenn. (AP)—A Hamilton, Ohio, preacher has been found in contempt of court here for violating a court order forbidding him from using a loudspeaker at his faith healing services.

Sentencing was withheld after the preacher, the Rev. Arnold Stalon, 33, said he planned to terminate his services Monday night.

Stalon has been conducting faith healing services in a tent near here for three weeks. Residents of the area obtained an injunction last week preventing him from operating his loudspeaker within 500 feet of their homes. They said the noise disturbed them.

In finding Stalon in contempt, Chancellor Jackson C. Raulston said Monday:

"You have every right to conduct services and the residents have every right not to be disturbed."
